State Militia to Undertake Disarmament of Guards and Strikers

BRIDGE IS BLOWN UP

Strikers Capture Seven Guards—Battle At Trinidad Continues

DENVER, Oct. 23.—At 1:20 this morning Governor Ammons terminated a series of conferences with the operators and strike leaders by summarily ordering the state militia to proceed to the southern Colorado coal fields and undertake a general disarmament of mine guards and strikers.

TRINIDAD, Colo., Oct. 27.—Denver & Rio Grande bridge at Barnes station was blown up tonight. The telegraph operator was forced to leave the station owing to the shooting around the station.

TRINIDAD, Colo., Oct. 27.—Strikers captured seven guards today at Chicosa Junction, eight miles north of Trinidad. It was also reported that they captured a Colorado & Southern engine.

For half an hour today more than 100 strikers battled at a mile range with several steel carloads of mine guards who were traveling over the Colorado & Southern railroad tracks, ostensibly on their way to the mines in the south. The strikers at the Ludlow camp had been led to believe that the guards were enroute to attack the tent colony.

Train derailleurs were set up and switches were thrown. When the first train came into sight, a mile away the strikers who had gone out to meet it began firing. The train was stopped and the guards turned back. After half an hour of fighting, in which three guards are reported to have been slightly wounded, the train was backed down the track and the strikers returned to their colony, where they were lustily cheered.

PRESIDENT WILSON GIVES DEATH BLOW TO DOLLAR DIPLOMACY

Assures Latin-America that Expectation of Material Gain Will Never Animate Dealings of United States With Neighbors, In Speech at Mobile—Underwood on American Marine

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 27.—While avoiding any mention specifically of Mexico, or any European influence connected with the Mexican situation, President Woodrow Wilson delivered a speech here today before the Southern Commercial Congress which appeared to be freighted with significance and which served to point with further directness the policy of the United States not only toward Mexico but toward all Central and South American Republics.

A score of South American diplomats sat just behind the President while he addressed the congressional body. Many of his sentences were punctuated with a meaning so clear as to leave little doubt of his intent. "Material interests," a phrase much in use internationally of late in characterizing the attitude of foreign nations toward Mexico—frequently was employed by the President. He declared the American republics had suffered long from the hard bargains forced upon them by holders of concessions, seeking "material interests" in the countries affected. "The President declared that through 'motives of morality and expediency' the United States desired to help the Latin American republics to an emancipation from the subordination which has been inevitable to foreign enterprise."

NO NEW TERRITORY. The President's speech was uttered with a confidence which bespoke the dominant part the United States expects to play in the future of the American republics.

"Not through any idea of material interests," he carefully explained, "but through a love of the people of constitutional liberty, the United States never will seek to obtain an individual or corporate right of conquest." He declared that the United States would not acquire any new territory.

Wilson was breakfasted, driven about the city by automobile, taken on a sightseeing expedition in the harbor, and started back to Washington with cheering crowds along his special train.

The President said: "I come here because I want to speak of our present and prospective relations with our neighbors to the south. I deem it a public duty as well as a personal pleasure to be here and to speak of our relations with them."

Wilson was breakfasted, driven about the city by automobile, taken on a sightseeing expedition in the harbor, and started back to Washington with cheering crowds along his special train.

These great ties which have been along parallel of latitude now, will be severed and the nations of the world, and that opening gate at the isthmus of Panama will open the world to a commerce that has not been known before—a commerce of intelligence of thought and sympathy between North and South.

EMANCIPATION. "What these studies will see therefore is an emancipation from the subordination to foreign enterprise and an assertion of the splendid character which in spite of these difficulties they have again and again been able to demonstrate."

"I rejoice in nothing so much as in the prospect that they will be emancipated from these conditions and will be able to be the first to take part in assisting that emancipation. In the future they will draw closer and closer to us because of circumstances of which I wish to speak with understanding and I hope without interference."

"We must prove ourselves to our friends and champions upon terms of equality and honor. You cannot be friends upon any other terms than upon the terms of equality. You cannot be friends under conditions and you cannot be friends who are not equal."

"Comprehension must be the soil in which shall grow all the fruits of friendship; because there is a reason and compulsion lying behind all this which is dearer than anything else to the thoughtful men of America; the right of the development of constitutional liberty in the world. Human rights, national integrity and opportunity as against material interests."

That is the issue which we now have to face. PRESENT AREA ENOUGH. "I want to take this occasion to say that the United States never again will seek an additional foot of territory by conquest. She will devote herself to showing that she knows how to make the most of the honorable and fruitful territory she has. And she must regard it as one of the duties of friendship to see that from no quarter are material interests made superior to human liberty and national opportunity."

"I say this with not with a single thought that anyone will gainsay it, but merely to fix in our consciousness what our real relationship with the rest of America is. It is the relationship of a family of mankind devoted to the development of true constitutional liberty."

"Interference has been made here today to some of the national problems which confront us as a nation. What is the heart of all our national problems? It is that we have seen the hand of material interest sometimes about to close upon our dearest interests and possessions. We have seen material interests threaten constitutional freedom in America. Therefore we will know how to sympathize with those in America who have to contend with that not only within their borders, but from the outside also."

OPPORTUNITY FOR LIBERTY. "I know what the essence of the thought and heart of America to a program like that will be, because America was created to realize a program like that. This is not America because it has set, up for a great popular ideal, the opportunity for prosperity. America is a name which sounds in the ears of men everywhere as a synonym and individual opportunity as a synonym of individual liberty. I would rather belong to a poor nation that was free than a rich nation that had ceased to be free."

ADMITTS HE TOOK $500 TO HELP IN SLINGSBY FRAUD

Dr. Fraser Breaks Down—Swore to False Birth Certificate

HELPED CLAIMANTS

Witness-In-Baby-Substitution Case Says He Was Bribed By Lawyer

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Dr. W. W. Fraser, chief witness of those attacking the legitimacy of the child said to have been born to Mrs. Dorothy C. Slingsby, heir to the Slingsby fortune, broke down before a grand jury inquisition tonight and admitted that he had received $500 for falsifying the birth certificate.

Dr. Fraser is the physician upon whom the English claimants to the Slingsby estate relied in their attempt to establish the paternity of the putative Slingsby baby as other than that of the child's mother, Mrs. Dorothy C. Slingsby.

In the grand jury investigation, questions were hurled at Dr. Fraser by District Attorney Pickett and members of the jury in quick succession, with the result that the physician suddenly admitted having received the money from Attorney Andrew Thorne.

The attempt had been made to show that the child was the son of Lillian Anderson, a Santa Rosa high school girl, and a birth certificate signed by Dr. Fraser, showing this parentage, was offered in evidence at the hearings before the British consul here in the sensational international inheritance case. Questionable and conflicting evidence and developments led to the grand jury investigation and tonight, to the turning point of the case.

REFUSED TO TESTIFY. Attorney Thorne on advice of counsel refused to answer whether he had given Dr. Fraser the $500.

Mrs. Mattie Blain, the nurse who had testified at previous hearings that Mrs. Slingsby did not give birth to a living baby, and who had been summoned by the grand jury, failed to appear tonight and officers searched for her in vain. Mrs. Blain previously had testified that the child later adopted by the Slingsbys and proffered as the heir to the estate, was not born in Mrs. Blain's home as had been claimed, but that the event happened in a hotel.

Witnesses testified at the four separate sittings of hearings—the initial probe before the state board of health, the hearing before the district attorney, later the police court hearing and finally the inquiry before the British vice consul, Douglas Young, sitting as court commissioner for the English high court of chancery—are concerned in the grand jury investigation. These persons include relatives of the Slingsbys, nurses, detectives employed by opposing members of the Slingsby family in England, physicians and officials—practically everyone who has had any connection with the case.

NO GOVERNMENT FUNDS FOR TUITION OF INDIAN PUPILS

As the California laws provide for education of Indian children, payment cannot be made by the Indian office, according to the treasury.

HUNDRED-FIGHT FANS FALL 10 FEET WHEN SCAFFOLDING BREAKS

(Special to the Republican.) TAMPA, Oct. 27.—Four were injured, one seriously, when a section of the local fight arena gave way at the Langford-Lester fight here this afternoon. More than 100 people were thrown to the ground, a distance of 10 feet.

FIVE HUNDRED MEN ARE FIGHTING FIRE

Hope to Put Out Forest Blaze Before It Reaches Baldy

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 27.—The prospect of soon having the Cucamonga and Little Creek forest fires under control was expressed in a message tonight from R. H. Charlton, federal forest supervisor who is at the scene of the conflagration. Five hundred men are battling the flames tonight.

Favorable conditions tonight gave the rangers cause for encouragement in spite of the fact that the fire is progressing toward the rugged region leading to Mount Baldy where the combat will entail extreme difficulties. Charlton announced that it would not be necessary to send reinforcements to the fire.

The fire has already ravaged a portion of the Little Creek watershed.

GAMBOA MAY BE IN LEAD IN RACE FOR MEXICAN PRESIDENT

Result Cannot be Known for Weeks—Minister Says Votes for Huerta Will be Thrown Out

VERA CRUZ, Oct. 27.—General Felix Diaz applied to the American consulate during the night for protection and was taken on board the U. S. gunboat Wheeling.

Jose Sandoval and Casilio Ocean, two Mexicans, and Alexander Williams, an American newspaper correspondent who had made similar application to the consulate, were also taken on board the gunboat with General Diaz. The testing tonight of a signal light affixed west of the American consulate aroused unfriendly comment at military headquarters. The light was operated by one of the marines and by means of it telegraphic flashes were transmitted. It may give rise to a controversy, it is reported, similar to that at Tampico where the Mexican government forced the consul to remove a wireless plant by means of which communication was had with the War Department.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—Out of nine hundred and seventy polling places in the federal district, the Catholic party leaders claim a majority of 920 for their candidates, Federico Gamboa and General Roscon. This claim, they say, is based on returns reported by the party watchers at the polls.

The returns from Colima, Guadalupe, and other smaller towns also indicate Catholic majorities. Huerta and Blanquet received majorities in a number of places. It is said by many political watchers that the vote has been cast for the Huerta-Blanquet ticket to invalidate the election, in view of General Huerta's declaration that Congress must declare these votes illegal. The Ayuntamiento has been called to meet November 2 to pass upon the ballots for Senators and deputies.

the recognition of Huerta would necessarily contain. Others maintained, however, that the recognition extended by Great Britain was intended only to hold until election last Sunday, no matter what might be the results. On this basis it was contended that Great Britain was free to listen to any proposal that might be made by the United States for the formulation of a general Mexican policy which would include also the participation of other powers.

In the absence from Washington of President Wilson, nothing definite could be learned about the future plans of the government, but it was generally asserted that nothing would be done until there was official announcement from Mexico City of the outcome of Sunday's elections.

SOME ACTION CERTAIN. It was the general belief in official circles that the newly elected Congress would be seated after some delay in announcing the final result; that the presidential election would be declared invalid and Huerta again chosen provisional President. Whatever happens in the United States is bound by its declaration not to recognize the government as it will be constituted and because in this situation it is deemed certain that an inhibitory move on the part of this government must be forthcoming.

Secretary Bryan plans to consult with President Wilson on the subject as soon as the latter returns from Mobile. The President's speeches of the last few days with relation to a general Latin-American policy, together with the comments of the British press generally, favorable to the American attitude in Mexico, gives some expectations of important developments before many days.

Secretary Bryan's department had heard nothing of a report that the German government had dispatched other warships to Mexican waters. Much of the information to the department from Mexico today was that the German dispatch dated October 25 stating that the day's fighting in Monterrey, quiet had been restored and that the federals at that time still held the city.

GAMBOA CARRIES SAN LUIS POTOSI

SAN LUIS POTOSI, Mexico, Oct. 27.—Huey and Blanquet, calling upon the people to vote "men of steel" and to beware of being misled in these critical times, kept many of the voters away from the polls in yesterday's elections here. Of the few votes cast, Gamboa, candidate of the Catholic party, received the majority.

Posters also carried the anti-federalist of a new party called the "anti-federalist" were put out. All others were prohibited. News from the surrounding country indicates that the number of marauding parties has not diminished. Ranchers are flocking to the city in terror. The boldness of the rebels is increasing.

WOMAN POLITICIAN ACCUSED OF FRAUD

Mrs. Huey of California Says Judge Church of Fresno "Unconsciously Influenced By His Wife"

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.—An appeal from the decision of Judge George E. Church of Fresno, was made to the state Supreme Court today on the charge that the jurist had been unconsciously influenced by his wife when he decided the divorce case of Hazel M. Keating and Edward Keating, sister of the late Andrew J. Keating, millionaire king of China. Mrs. Church was said to have been a friend of Mrs. Keating.

It was alleged in the appeal that the $5,000 alimony allowed by Judge Church was excessive. The appeal also contained the assertion that state-ments regarding Keating's alleged relations with Mrs. Vincent Lehman had never been fully proved. Briefs were submitted in the Keating appeal before the Supreme Court closed its session here today. Arguments were under advisement. The case was taken under advisement.

MURPHY ANSWERS

SULZER CHARGES

Denies That He Was the Beneficiary of the Campaign Begging

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Charles F. Murphy gave out a statement tonight in reply to the charges recently made by William Sulzer. Of the accusations uttered by Sulzer in his campaign speeches and in newspapers all but one are denied by the Tammany hall leader. The exception related to a $25,000 campaign contribution by Judge Beardsley. Sulzer said he rejected this contribution upon learning that it came from Anthony N. Brady and that the money subsequently went to Murphy, who he declared, had made no acknowledgment of it. Murphy said tonight he received the money from Beardsley but returned it to Brady the following day. Brady died in London last spring, several months after the incident mentioned by Murphy and Sulzer.

Murphy in his statement emphasized the fact that Sulzer did not make his charges before the court which impeached him.

After receding to the demands of Edward F. McCall, Tammany Hall candidate for mayor, that he put in writing his charges against McCall, John A. Hennessy, graft investigator for the deposed governor, again reiterated tonight at an uptown meeting many of the statements contained in these charges. The speaker prepared tonight his promised speech dealing with his interview with former Senator Stephen Ellwell, but displayed a large volume which contained, he declared, the transcript of Ellwell's story as it was told to him in Sing Sing prison. The story, it is said, was taken by means of a telephone device.

"I'll tell the Ellwell story tomorrow night," Hennessy assured the crowd.

James D. McClellan, who for Ellwell, issued a statement tonight in which he denied that his client had made a confession to Hennessy involving Democratic leaders.

I was nervous, had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world."

Underwood emphasized the point that without shipping controlled by the United States this country never could gain the increase in trade it expected from the opening of the canal. He pointed out that now about 10 per cent of the material imported and exported into and from the United States was carried in American bottoms. In fostering American shipping lay the best chance of gain through opening of the canal, said Underwood.

One of the principal addresses of the night session was that of Secretary of the Navy Daniels who spoke of "The Relation of Our Navy to the Panama Canal."

MORE STRIKE BREAKERS BROUGHT INTO MICHIGAN

CALUMET, Mich., Oct. 27.—A move made to end the strike of miners in the Michigan copper country failed today. The former Sheriff James Myers and Circuit Judge H. H. O'Brien, who acted as intermediaries between the opposing parties, still hope that their efforts will be successful.

Meanwhile hundreds of men are being brought into the district to replace the strikers, two special trains arriving within today. It was stated that these men have been guaranteed permanent positions if their work proved satisfactory. The special trains were met today by large bodies of strikers, but strong forces of deputies and militia men prevented disorder.

KATHERINE ELKINS

MARRIES YOUNG HITT

Wedding Is Surprise to Immediate Members of Bride's Family

ELKINS, W. Va., Oct. 27.—Katherine Elkins, daughter of the late Senator Stephen B. Elkins, was married here this afternoon to William F. Hitt. Although intimate friends and the family had expected it for two years, the wedding was a surprise to many.

Not even the mother of the bride was aware of the preparations for the wedding had been made until a few hours before it took place.

The ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate family, at Halleyhurst, the Elkins home here. Former Senator Davis Elkins was the attendant of the groom. Mrs. Blaine Elkins, sister in law of the bride, was matron of honor. Rev. F. H. Barron, pastor of the Davis Memorial Presbyterian church here, was the clergyman.

The bride is a granddaughter of former United States Senator Henry G. Sawyer Davis and while the wedding was at 2 o'clock, so quietly had arrangements been made that he, too, was unaware of the project until noon.

Others present included Colonel Richard L. Hitt of Philadelphia, a brother of the bride, Mrs. Katherine Britton of Washington, D. C., and after a wedding luncheon the couple departed for the East.

William F. Hitt is a son of a former congressman from Illinois and for years had made his home with his mother in Washington. During the past three or four years he frequently has been a guest of the Elkins family at a time, and on several occasions accompanied Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins and the present Mrs. Hitt on trips abroad.

ABRUZZI INCIDENT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Diplomatic and society circles in Washington heard of the marriage of Miss Katherine Elkins to William F. Hitt with unusual interest. The news came as a complete surprise, although it had been known that the wealthy young Washingtonian had been an ardent admirer of Miss Elkins for many years.

A few years ago capital society was certain that Miss Elkins would wed the famous Duke of the Abruzzi, member of the Italian royal family, naval officer and explorer. About the time the duke came to America in command of the Italian fleet that participated in the international rendezvous at the Jamestown Exposition the West Virginia heiress attracted great attention.

Then for several years there were semi-official announcements of their engagement. It was said that the duke's family objected, and that Miss Elkins had rejected the royal suitor. Denials followed the reports, but many people believed that in the end the wedding would take place.

Finally the queen dowager of Italy was said to have interfered. At any rate, the duke went on a two-year cruise and nothing more was heard about the romance.

Owing to the suddenness of the whole affair, no attention was paid to dress and the duke's mother, residing in Washington, was appalled at the marriage by telegram this afternoon. The wedding found members of both families and friends unprepared as to gifts.

Hitt met Miss Elkins in Washington society about ten years ago.

PIONEER JOURNALIST DIES

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 27.—William A. Newson, who lived for fifty years in Minneapolis and was one of the first newspaper publishers of the city, died today. He was interested for many years in the publication of the Minneapolis Tribune.

The Quick and the Dead

It was an old fashioned habit of readers to turn first of all to the death notices on picking up a newspaper.

Nowadays people turn more often to the advertisements of the live merchants.

They are interested in the quick, and the quickest men in town are the merchants who advertise.

They are the business progressives, men with a message to deliver.

They back up words with deeds. They make good.

It is a safe axiom that it is always safest to trade with the man who advertises.

He has a promise to live up to, and he knows his future depends on his ability to make good.

Read the advertisements in the Republican and patronize the merchants who advertise. You will find that it pays.

Pyorrhea

That condition known as pyorrhea, if allowed to run its course, results in the loss of the teeth, when they could easily be saved by proper treatment at the right time. I specialize in this work.

The success I attain in the use of analgesia for painless operations on the teeth in attracting a great many patients, and they are all unanimous in praise of this latest advance in dental science.

The various Rock Island issues and the railway bonds were especially strong subjects of discussion as a result of these reported changes.

BIXBY SUIT DISMISSED

Two other suits filed by companions of Miss Lewis, each seeking a similar amount, are still pending.

BIG HOTEL FIRE

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—A spectacular fire which lit up the ocean for miles, destroyed tonight the extensive bathing houses of the Hotel Nassau on Long Beach, Long Island. The flames for a while threatened to spread to a big eight-story hotel, but fire departments of nearby villages, reinforced by a bucket brigade of patrons of the hotel, some of them attired in full dress, kept them from doing serious damage. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

PHILOSOPHY

There's a little china paper-weight before me on my desk,
A tiny heathen deity, ill-favored and grotesque,
All stained and cracked and battered in the most outrageous style,
But his one redeeming feature is his bright and sunny smile.

My wife is fond of using him on hazelnuts and tacks,
My children smear his cheerful face with sweets and chewing wax,
He tumbled out the window once and lost us for a while,—
But nothing can attenuate his bright and sunny smile.

O poor, maltrated heathen with obliterated eyes,
How oft for lesser wrongs than yours our angry passions rise!
We need to learn, as you have learned, that when heads begin to ache, the pains and ills of living with bright and sunny smile.

COLLEGE BOYS HUNT CATS.

One hundred Wesleyan freshmen abandoned their morning recitations recently at the command of the sophomore, who were pulling them through various "stunts." Preliminary to initiation into the college fraternities, and started to take a census of all the cats in the city. The city has been divided into districts, and by noon tomorrow an accurate return must be made from every household as to the number, sex and pedigree of all cats owned.

Already some of the freshmen have experienced difficulty in getting their reports, as several of the householders fear that later on their pets may be taken for dissecting purposes. It is recalled that the institution lost a bequest of $10,000 from the estate of Miss Mary Vandewater, who died this summer, because one of her pet cats had been taken by students, as she thought.

GREAT WORK.

"What was the best job you ever did?" inquired the first barber.
"I once shaved a man," replied the second barber.

"Go on."

"Then I persuaded him to have a haircut, shampoo, facial massage, since, beard, electric buzz, tanspray, and tonic rub."

"What then?"

"By the time he needed another shave."—From the St. Louis Republic.

A CHANCE FOR MEXICO

They are a well drilled folk, these Mexicans, and they vote for whoever is boss. For a long generation they voted for Porfirio Diaz—or, at least, they were returned as so voting—and now they vote for Huerta. To be sure, Huerta was not a candidate and will not accept their votes. Why should he? "Heads, I win; tails, you lose." If the votes count, Huerta is elected. If they don't count, he remains in office. So, why bother to count them, especially as the returns from remote precincts might not happen to be, as the early ones are, for Huerta? With an election, he has a claim; with an election he would merely have a sure thing. The claim is easier, cheaper and safer.

Don't get shocked at this election in Mexico. That is the way it is always done there. Nobody was ever elected in Mexico to anything. The ruling classes in Mexico do not believe that the common people are fit for self-government, and the patience with which they submit to such government as they get seems to confirm the estimate. Election fraud and sophistication are as recognized a part of government in Mexico as graft is in China. Ask a Chinese official how much he grafts, where he gets it and what he divides with his superiors, and he will answer with the most circumstantial frankness. Ask a Mexican employer how he cheats and enslaves his workmen, and the answer will be equally unabashed. Nobody denies it and everybody defends it. The fiction is that even the people like it, and the people, having no voice, make no reply.

Yet, after all, Mexico needs nothing but a chance. Let the common Mexican, for one generation, get a chance to make a living and to send his children to school, and the social problem is solved. Let capital and enterprise have access to the resources of Mexico, with civilized protection of their rights, and the industrial problem is solved. Let any sort of government enforce peace and order, promote education and open up the land, and all the problems for itself and for its successors, will solve themselves. There is room and prosperity in Mexico for all the Mexicans and for twice as many immigrants from America and Europe. It is a magnificent land. All it needs is a chance.

And in spite of President Wilson's proclamation that the United States will not again seek to secure one additional foot of territory by conquest, it may be our job to give Mexico that chance.

A BANK FALLACY

The bulletin of the American National Bank of San Francisco, reprinted yesterday in the Republican, contains a reiteration of the usual complaint of certain bankers against the proposed currency bill now in the U. S. Senate, so logical and so far from the equities of the relationship of the government to the banking institutions of the country that it is inconceivable that any responsible banker should persist in it.

The proposed regulation whereby reserve banks shall be created with capital furnished by the national banks within the districts, the whole banking system to be directed by a governmental board, is attacked as confiscation. This confiscation is asserted upon the argument that if the government may direct the national banks to finance the reserve associations, it may also compel them to give over their entire capital to the reserve associations. Quite aside from the foolishness of carrying this or any argument to an extreme—there could be no question of confiscation in any case. There is no requirement that any bank shall become a national bank. Men who desire to go into the banking business may do so, under state laws, without any reference to the national regulations, with full protection for their property and credits and enforcement of all their just claims. It is only when such bankers seek charters from Congress, with the desire to obtain certain semi-governmental powers, such as the issuance of currency, that the government can exact, in return, conformity to such regulations as Congress may find just as between the banks, their more or less unrepresented depositors, and the people at large.

Since coming under the national bank measure it is a purely voluntary act, there can be no question of confiscation—the banks will not seek or retain national charters unless they are worth while.

On the further question of the right of the government to demand control over the reserve associations, into which the government, as it is pointed out, is making no deposits, it is certainly a question as to whether the banks or the depositors in the banks have, in the final argument, the greater property right. The banks of the country cannot and will not do business unless they have deposits many times in excess of their combined capital and surplus. They do not own these deposits—they are merely trustees in a limited sense—and as such trustees, the government may well provide reserve associations to direct their handling of large quantities of securities in times of financial stress.

The question in the financial bulletin that "if private capital in the form of bank shares can be commandeered for governmental purposes, against the consent of the owner, why may not private capital in any other form be treated in like manner?" betrays an indifference to the facts in the case than can hardly be taken seriously. The bill does not propose to take the reserves for governmental purposes, but for purely bank purposes. It does not commandeer them at all, but merely permits the banks to enter into the reserve system, provided they see the advantages of the national bank system. And finally, the private capital for whose dignity the bankers are so solicitous, is composed for the most parts of deposits, not owned by the banks at all, which yet may be, and frequently are, in time of panic, mismanaged by the banks in a fashion that the real owners, the depositors, would not approve of at all.

The question as to the final management of the national banking system, decidedly cannot be left to the decision of the bankers of the country solely, any more than can any other profession or business determine just what privileges they shall have in serving the general public.

SCARED AT GHOST

Former Judge Albert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, in an address the other day before the American Iron and Steel Institute, declared that the difficulty of securing capital for the advancement of industry was due to the agitation of demagogues. "I venture the assertion," said Judge Gary, "that it is largely because of much unnecessary agitation and ill-considered criticism, by those who have not the nation's best interests at heart. There is too much demagoguery; too much mud-slinging. 'It is not uncommon,' he added, 'in public discussion to treat success as an offense; to consider the possession of wealth, however honestly acquired, as wrong. Legislation calculated to create classes is urged persistently; also laws to impose unnecessary and unreasonable burdens; to forcibly take from one something which he has and is entitled to have and turn it over; to prevent or to lessen the success of legitimate enterprise and endeavor. Capital, always timid, has been seriously affected by this unreasonable and uncalled-for agitation. Indeed, it is becoming frightened.'

All of which, in spite of its distinguished source, is pure bugaboo. If there are any demagogues who indulge in this sort of irresponsible talk, they are far too obscure to be heard, much less heeded, in the hands of capital. And the actual agitation, which Judge Gary really had in mind, is so absurdly misrepresented by his characterization as to be unrecognizable. There is no such agitation as the head of the steel trust describes, anywhere that counts, and the agitation which there is bears no resemblance to his description.

The actual agitation has at its head President Wilson and former Presidents Roosevelt and Taft, the heads of the three political parties in America. And that agitation is for the establishment generally of conditions every one of which has stood the test of successful experience somewhere, and is obviously both just and practical.

It is interesting to note that Judge Gary does not attribute any of the alleged havoc to the laws actually enacted and in force. Yet every one of these was "legislation" once, and as dire predictions were made of the consequences of their enactment, or even of their discussion. When President Roosevelt proposed a railroad rate regulation measure not half as thoroughgoing as the law now in force in California, the whole railroad press bureau shrieked "confiscation" and "ruin." But the law came, and others much more advanced followed—and the railroads are the better off, for the protection of the same laws which also protect the public.

Capital may be "frightened." But if so, it is at a ghost of its own imagination.

NO GLASS PEDDLERS

Last week Collier's had another editorial censuring the Panama-Pacific Exposition for the alleged spectacle-selling concession. The editorial was quite correct as to everything but the facts. The concession, if it had been granted, would have been open to exactly the objections urged by Collier's. But it just happens that, for exactly these reasons, the concession was not granted, and there will be no one at the Exposition foisting glasses on the unwary. This concession has been a scandal at some previous expositions, just as any concession to commercialize any branch of the healing art would be. But there will be no such thing in San Francisco in 1915. We understand that Collier's Weekly will make this correction of fact, next week. On the facts, as Collier's supposed them to be, the criticism would have been just.

TWINN HAD TO STAND.

Mark Twain, in his betwixt days, reached a small eastern town one afternoon and went before dinner to a barber's to be shaved.

"You are a stranger in town, sir?" the barber asked.

"Yes, I am a stranger here," was the reply.

"We're having a good lecture here to-night, sir," said the barber. "A Mark Twain lecture. Are you going to it?"

"Yes, I think I will," said Mr. Twain.

"Have you got your ticket yet?" the barber asked.

"No, not yet," said the other.

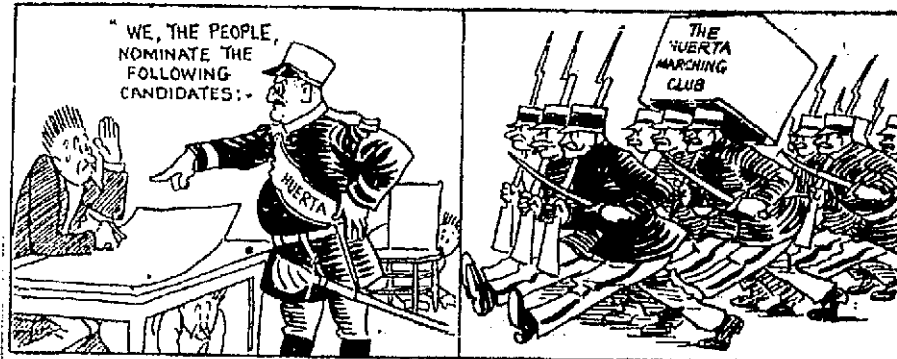

"Then, sir, you will have to stand," said the barber.

"I don't mind," Mr. Twain exclaimed. "I'll always have to stand when I hear that man Twain lecture."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

2037 MARIPOSA STREET

A Frenchman can run an automobile over a pedestrian with perfect manners.

Politeness is the lubricant which enables human beings to mingle without knocking the corners off of each other.

It is the piano finish of conversation. Politeness has a state of mind, but of words. Many a man can be perfectly polite and agreeable to another while he is trying to keep upon him with a hoarse growl and lute off his ear.

Politeness is the art of expressing what you ought to feel. When a man feels politeness and expresses it at the same time, he is a perfect gentleman. When he only expresses it he is a good imitation. Sometimes the imitation is for higher prices than the real thing in the marriage market.

With the aid of politeness a man may make his way pleasantly through a cross and perspiring world, gaining what he wants and having his own way. Politeness is a greater asset than financial ability. The financier has to work for his money, but the truly polite man can allow others to work for him and can make a lifelong friend of a creditor by the beautiful way in which he apologizes for not being able to pay him.

Some people wear their politeness all the time, while others take it off like an overcoat when they become heated and use the plain unvarnished English. After using politeness constantly and to excess for a few years, a man's feelings and his conversation become total strangers and have to be introduced when they meet on rare occasions.

Politeness has made the world twice as pleasant and about half as truthful as it was before. However, people should not attempt to live on politeness alone. It is like living on cake. Some of our politest citizens have come to end by being shot by boorish persons to whom they were apologizing for being compelled to ask them to elevate their hands and stand perfectly quiet.

America is not noted as a nation for politeness. France is. Frenchmen are significantly eminent or associated with glory of whatever character. In olden times it was not uncommon to use the term "laureate" to indicate the dispatches announcing a victory.

John Skelton, who died in 1529, received the laureate honor from both the universities and, accordingly, styled himself "Poeta Laureatus." Attached to the household of the medieval English kings were minstrels and poets. From the more general use of the term "poet laureate" arose its restriction in England to the office of the poet attached to the royal household, first held by Ben Jonson, for whom the position was, in its essentials created by Charles I in 1617. It does not seem to have been formally appointed poet laureate, but his position was equivalent to that.

"The office was really a development of the practice of earlier times, when the versifiers were a part of the retinue of the king. Richard Coeur de Lion is said to have had a 'versificator regis,' while Henry III had a verse writer, Master Henry. As early as the fifteenth century Edward IV had a 'humble poet laureate,' for such John Kay described himself.

Moreover the crown had shown its patronage in various ways. Chaucer was granted by Edward III a pension of twenty marks in 1356, and afterwards, in 1374 he was given a pitcher of wine daily; one of the subsequent perquisites of the laureateship. But Chaucer never received an official appointment to the post, and his pensions were for diplomatic and other services.

Spenser was given a pension by Queen Elizabeth, and W. Hamilton classes Chaucer, Gower, Kay, Andrew Bernard, Skelton, Robert Walington,

SOCIETY

If troubles never come singly, as is frequently quoted, the saying might well be played upon this week to imply that pleasures do not always come singly. In fact, some of the most anticipated functions of the week seem to be "bunched," and for Thursday evening there are three conflicting affairs back-to-back most invitingly. The Riverside and Sunnyside Country Clubs each have Halloween festivities scheduled for that evening, and at the Parlor Lecture Club one of the finest of the season's attractions is booked, the illustrated lecture on "The Canadian Alps" which will be given by Herbert W. Gleason of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Roeding are among the Presnians arriving in San Francisco for a time following the week of Portola celebration.

The Query Club held an unusually interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. De Witt H. Gray on San Joaquin street. A Symposium on Women being the topic for the afternoon, with a number of clever members of the club presenting flatteringly statistics concerning "The weaker sex."

Among those who had charge of the afternoon's program, and their subjects were Mrs. J. L. Maupin, "Woman in Medicine," Mrs. G. C. Freeman, "Woman in Law," Mrs. De Witt H. Gray, "Woman in Philosophy," Mrs. C. L. McLane, "Woman in the Pulpit," Miss Sarah McCord, "Woman in Business," and Mrs. H. O. Butler, "Women in the Schools."

The club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Ed Walthe, when Mrs. J. Miller will continue her presentation of Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing." Short papers are to be read by the club members on which of Shakespeare's feminine characters would make the best wife.

There will be no meeting of the Women's Alliance of the First Unitarian church this afternoon, as the members are busily engaged this week in holding a rummage sale.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First M. E. church will meet this afternoon in the church parlors at 2:30.

Mrs. Frank H. Short has returned from a delightful week's sojourn in San Francisco during the Portola celebration, having been the guest of Mrs. A. Gartenlaub.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Patterson and Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Maupin leave this morning in the Patterson's motor for a trip to Southern California, planning to stay for a time at Santa Barbara.

Mrs. Parker Prinsell has issued invitations for a Halloween luncheon, which she will give on Thursday at her home on the Kearney estate.

Mrs. W. A. Sutherland and little son Keith are among those sojourning in San Francisco for a fortnight.

The members of St. Agnes Guild of the Episcopal Pro-Cathedral enjoyed their meeting yesterday afternoon at the country home of Miss Adeline Thornton on Kearney avenue. The members motored out early in the afternoon and spent an hour or so with needles and thread, which will be placed on sale at their booth in the coming Chrysanthemum bazaar, the wide veranda being the setting for the afternoon's festivities. Later they adjourned to the dining room, where tea and refreshments were served. The guild will meet next Monday with Miss Dorothy Noble at her home on T street.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Wells motored down from San Francisco yesterday after attending the Portola festival. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parks of that city accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Wells and will be their guests while in Fresno.

The literary department of the Parlor Lecture Club enjoyed a reading of "The Poor Little Rich Girl," by Eleanor Gates Tully, given at the meeting held yesterday afternoon at the club house, by Mrs. W. P. Miller.

The Morning Study Class will meet this morning at the home of Mrs. Frank H. Short, when Mrs. W. P. Miller will read Charles Rand Kennedy's "Necessary Evil."

Rev. and Mrs. Harold Govette will be the guests of honor at a reception this evening which will be given in the parlors of the St. Paul's M. E. church.

SIX THOUSAND HEAD OF CATTLE ARE STARVING

Stock of S. C. Lilles On West Side Dying From Neglect

One Hundred Carcasses Are Found By Road; Keeper Is Missing

That six thousand head of cattle owned by C. S. Lilles, a millionaire cattleman of San Francisco, are starving to death on a big ranch on Pancho Creek, 45 miles from Fresno on the West Side, and that one hundred head are dead, was the report made to William Harvey, Sr., of the Fresno County Humane Society last night by J. E. Farnum, a Hollywood resident, who has been visiting his property interests in this county.

According to the report Farnum made to the humane officer the cattle are very weak and if not watered and fed in the next 24 hours the majority will be dead. One hundred carcasses were counted lying near the road and how many more can be found back in the range is not known. Farnum said that he had been informed that Lilles had hired a Spaniard to care for the stock during the winter but that the man had disappeared and the cattle were not being watered or fed.

Harvey declared last night that he could not make the trip to the ranch and make a personal investigation of the case but that he would write a letter to Lilles and explain the situation to him. In the meantime the cattle will be cared for by neighbors. The humane officer said that he did not think Lilles would permit the cattle to be neglected and therefore no action would be taken against him but if the Spaniard could be found he would be prosecuted.

Lilles is a wealthy stock man and has vast interests in this county where he owns hundreds of acres on the West Side. Lilles about a year ago was involved in a suit with the government and served a term for fencing in government land.

REDUCING LIST OF CHINESE INJUNCTIONS

Wong Shong Chong Case Outlived All Late Official Changes

Dismissal was ordered by Judge Austin yesterday in one of the Chinese injunction cases, the list of which is on the whole being sensibly diminished. The dismissal was in the case of Wong Shong Chong, pending since December 10, 1912, with answer filed February 10, 1913. The denial was in the Chong Kee case, commenced on January 7, 1913, with answer filed on June 20. The dismissals were asked under the amended law providing for dispatch in the trials of injunction matters and giving their precedence on court calendars to expedite hearing to a final determination. The Wong Shong Chong case is one of the heaviest in the catalog of fire-hanging gambling cases. Since it has been on the court files, a new city executive has been elected, the chief has been changed and the city attorneyship has been filled by Frank Kaube and Ernest Klette, and the latter succeeded by Lewis H. Smith.

C. E. TO HOLD SUNRISE PRAYER THANKSGIVING

Young People's Societies To Observe Day; Y. P. S. C. E. to Take Up Jail Work

The annual Thanksgiving morning sunrise prayer meeting will be held next month by the Christian Endeavorers of this city, several hundred workers planning to gather at Fresno and Belmont avenues at that time for devotional aid by Rev. Chas. R. Shaw, pastor of the First Christian church.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the City Young People's Union of Christian Endeavor last evening, it was decided that the Young People's or Senior C. E. societies would join with the intermediates in the sunrise prayer.

The Y. P. S. C. E. last night also determined to take up jail and hospital work extensively. One Sunday morning every month will be devoted to a meeting at the county jail. It will be the aim of the Endeavorers to do personal work among the prisoners both before and after they are released from jail.

SAFE CRACKERS DREAD MAXIMUM SENTENCE

French, Al Keefe and Ashton, the accused safe-crackers in the Holland grocery store, dread the possibility of a maximum sentence of 15 years for their crime because of the prior convictions charged against them, and today will withdraw their plea to the information and to save a point on appeal file demurrer through Attorneys Klotte and Thomson. The information while charging prior convictions does not state that they served in penal institutions under the judgments rendered against them. If the priors are left to stand, all discretion in sentence is taken from Judge Austin and under a verdict of guilty the defendants would each face a term of 15 years for a burglary in the night time.

GROWERS IN FAVOR OF SEPARATE COMPANY

Promotion Committee
Learns Sentiment On County Boosting Tour

Meeting Called Today to Devise Plans for Organization

Peach growers and others interested, no longer believe that the dried fruit interests should be affiliated with the Associated Raisin Company as one corporation. This much was found out today by members of the promotion committee of the Growers' Dried Fruit Company, who made a boosting trip to several towns of the county.

Furthermore it was found out by these committees that there is a desire on the part of the peach growers to arouse interest at once by the hope of getting the $50,000 subscribed, so as to permit organization, and a meeting of the committee will be held today to devise some plan to insure the securing of the $50,000 and the subsequent organization. The plan of organization will probably be along the same lines as those followed in the organization of the California Associated Raisin Company, namely by selecting trustees from the different districts and allowing them to select the directors.

The peach growers are anxious to see the growers' Dried Fruit Company organized at once, so that it may take up the work of organization itself, as did the Associated Raisin Company, before the next crop is harvested.

The largest meetings held yesterday were at Selma and Reedley. The members of the committee spent about two hours in Selma meeting with about twenty prominent citizens. Not a single man was found there who believed the dried fruit company should work with associated capital.

At Reedley, a large meeting had been arranged by V. Burros, a member of the committee, and the Chamber of Commerce room was filled. Here another two hours was spent in general discussion. It was the unanimous opinion of the meeting that the solicitation of subscriptions should start at once and that the movement would receive the hearty co-operation of business men and peach growers.

Brief stops were also made at Fowler, Kingsburg and Dinuba. The members of the committee who made the tour were E. W. Hyde, chairman, Frank Loring, W. R. Nutting and Clyde Davenport.

YELLOW BLISTERS ALL OVER BODY

Itched and Hurt So Could Not Rest Day or Night. Nearly Tortured to Death. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

Hollens, New Mexico. — "Our little boy first broke out in little yellow blisters about the size of pin heads and they itched and hurt so badly he could not rest day or night. In a few days they were running some and kept spreading until they were as large as a dollar. He had them all over his body and was nearly tortured to death, as they hurt him so badly he could hardly sleep. He would scratch and cause great sores all over his face and legs.

We tried several highly recommended remedies but they didn't seem to help him a bit. Nothing seemed to do any good until we got Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We had used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment but a short time before he was completely cured without a scar." (Signed) Mrs. J. H. Northcutt, Nov. 22, 1912.

Not only are Cuticura Soap and Ointment most valuable in the treatment of eczema and other distressing eruptions of skin and scalp, but they are also most effective in the treatment of pimples, blackheads, red, rough skin, itching, scaly scalp, dandruff, dry, itchy and falling hair, chapped hands and chapped heels. A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c) and box of Cuticura Ointment (50c) are often sufficient when all else has failed. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 22-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shave with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp. —Advertisement.

FRUIT RATES ARE DISCRIMINATORY

Growers' Association Asks
Many Adjustments
In I. C. C. Suit

The California Fruit Growers' Association et al., in the complaint filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission against the Alabama Great Southern and numerous joint carriers, protests against the present 25,000-pound minimum carload on refrigerator cars of deciduous fruit from California to points in the United States.

The rates are called "twenty-tier cars" are extensively used, and the above minimum requires 2,000 standard size crates of deciduous tree fruits and 930 crates of table grapes, necessitating their piling ten crates high. This brings the top crates so close to the roof of the car that the fruit becomes so ripe and from $100 to $200 per car is lost by the difference in price obtained for the top crates and the bottom crates.

The defendants have published tariffs on fruit transported from points in Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma to points in the United States, prescribing 25,000 pounds as the carload minimum. This, the complainants contend, is a reasonable minimum—the 25,000 being excessive. They petition the commission to fix 25,000 pounds as the minimum from California to other points.

The 400 per car charged from California points to Denver should be $45, the rate from Oregon and Washington to Denver. The $70 from California to Chicago should be $50, the rate from Oregon and Washington to Chicago. The $75 charged from California to St. Louis should be $55, the Oregon rate. The $75 to Chicago should be $50, the Oregon rate, and the $75 to Philadelphia and New York should be $70, the Oregon rate.

At present $1.30 and $1.71 is charged from California to points in Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina and Tennessee. This should not exceed $1.15, the Oregon rate. Such are the contentions of the growers.

QUARANTINE FOR DIPHTHERIA RAISED

The last quarantine for diphtheria in the city was raised yesterday by Dr. L. R. Wilson and leaves only two contagious diseases under quarantine in the city. There are two cases of scarlet fever in the city in the mildest form. While pink eye is prevalent in many of the city schools the city doctors claim that the disease is just as it has been for the last few years. Whenever a child is taken with infection of the eyes the pupil is sent home and the parents advised to call the family physician. Dr. Wilson said last night that he had no word of the number of pink eye cases in the city, but there was nothing to be alarmed about.

Dr. G. L. Long, county health officer, reports twelve cases of scarlet fever in the Kernan district. The homes and schools are being fumigated.

A drunken man last night was found wandering down J street with a razor in his hand. He was arrested by Patrolman Merrill and taken to the county jail. He had cut himself on the chin with the razor. The police do not believe that he was trying to commit suicide.

Owes His Life to This Lung Remedy

If you neglect a continued cough or cold, you are in constant danger of contracting serious Lung Trouble. The cough or cold which you neglect, if ordinary treatment should be a warning, you and preventive measures should be taken as soon as possible. In many cases Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for Croup and Lung Troubles, has brought permanent recovery. Read this:

Catherine Ayo and Asot Place, Queens Court, L. I. N. Y.

"Gentlemen—In the year 1908 I was taken with a heavy cold and a nasty short cough. I went to several doctors, who gave me a lot of medicine. Finally I went to a specialist, who gave me a course of treatment that made me sick of all kinds of food; consequently I failed in health. I then went to the Catskills and seemed to get better, but my cough kept me from staying there for one year, and then went to a farm near Jersey City, a very sick man. About the time of my return, my mother recommended Eckman's Alternative to me very highly. It is now nearly two years since I first took it. I am now well and I feel as if I could have been buried long ago if it had not been for Eckman's Alternative."

Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years of use to be most effective for severe Croup and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Stomachic Colds and all upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotic, poison or habit-forming drugs. Sold by leading druggists. Write the Eckman Laboratories, Philadelphia, Pa., for booklet telling of recoveries and additional evidence.

CIRCULATION MAN, FORMER FRESNO ENDS LIFE

Disagreement Over $7000 Causes W. H. Daniels to Kill Himself

Deceased Is Remembered Here As Former Employee of Defunct Exhibitor

As a result of a financial disagreement with the Curtis Publishing Company, William H. Daniels, for 23 years Pacific Coast manager of the company and before that a resident of Fresno, shot and killed himself yesterday morning at his home in San Francisco, No. 1321 Seventh avenue.

The amount of money involved in the controversy was $7,000, obtained by Curtis in the sale of Klatskanie Evening Post routes. He claimed this as a personal perquisite, while a representative of the publishing company insisted that the money should be refunded to the purchasers of routes on the ground that the routes were not worth the sums for which they were sold.

Daniels is very well remembered here by the older members of the newspaper profession. He came here about 1888 as circulation manager of the "Expositor," remaining here until 1897. In that time he brought the "Expositor's" circulation up to high water mark and was rewarded for his efforts by the late J. W. Ferguson by a present of a pair of city lots. Daniels was genial and affable and to once know him was to count him as a friend.

The suicide was deliberately planned, as indicated by his previous actions and letters left by him.

About 8 o'clock in the morning he telephoned to the garage where his automobile is kept and asked for George Tompkins to come up and sit with Mrs. Daniels, who was indisposed.

On the arrival of Tompkins, Daniels went to his den on the second floor of his home and shot himself. He died before his family could summon aid.

Members of his family heard him pacing up and down his room throughout the night.

In a note in the corner and a fuller letter to his wife, Daniels gave the reason for taking his life. The note to the coroner, reads:

"This is to exonerate any other person concerning my death (even the Curtis Publishing Company)—who could not stand by their representative after twenty-three years of service—when he had secured a circulation of ninety thousand a week for the Saturday Evening Post—because he merely made a few dollars extra, selling Post routes on commission. I alone am responsible for my death."

The letter to his wife reads:

"Dear Love, I am not writing this, my last note, to you. I decided Saturday afternoon when Douglas rang his little game on me that I was to disburse $7,000 to all the commission I had made in five or six years on route to the Los Angeles party. I said to myself, 'I will not do this. I have put in a machine and a house, Charlie was my only means of this money, and it would ruin him, so I concluded it would be useless to call on him.'

"I know I am not leaving you much. I do not know what the company intends to do, but they will not stand by me for making commissions on routes. They say the prices are excessive. I am better able to judge, for I have been on the ground for years. They depreciate the value of their own business. I had thought that twenty-three years of service would count for something, but it seems not."

"So the best thing I can do, dear darling, is to leave this world. Do not, sweet, darling, censure me too harshly. You have been so patient and loving—that to go before you seems cruel, but it is better, I assure you, I will wait for you and go and live with Charlie until you can join me. Darling, you have been so generous that I know you will forgive me."

"Tompkins will telegraph for Charlie. He knows nothing as does a living soul. But he will also see Miss Anderson Monday and get my salary."

"I am good-bye to all of our dear, good friends. Precious sweetheart, I will write more in the morning."

Daniels was about 60 years of age.

W. McMahon, wanted in Hartford for embezzlement in connection with an automobile deal, was arrested at 1 o'clock this morning by Patrolman Hurlenbrook.

How to Make the Best Cough Remedy at Home

A Family Supply at Small Cost, and Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of granulated sugar and a quart of warm water and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of pure Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of $2. It never spoils. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold almost instantly and with usually only after an ordinary cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough, and has a pleasing taste. Also excellent for laryngeal trouble, bronchitis, whooping cough and spasmodic croup.

This method of making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (strained honey) is now used in more homes than any other cough syrup. This explains why it is often imitated, though never successfully. If you try it, use only genuine Pinex, which is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in quinine and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Wild Career Puts End to Life of Popular Young Business Man

(Special to the Republican.)

TAFT, Oct. 27.—Thomas Edmonds, bookkeeper for Ashford mercantile establishment on Fourth street, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head here this afternoon. The act was committed in the toilet of the building. Embellishment of the company's funds is suspected as the cause of the deed. The inquest will be held today.

That Edmonds had contemplated taking his life is evident by the fact that he purchased a .38-caliber Colt's revolver and a box of shells this morning, and it is supposed that he has been carrying the weapon since his purchase, waiting for the opportune moment to present itself.

Edmonds left the store shortly after noon and was seen by friends at the Langford-Lester fight. When he returned to the store shortly after 1 o'clock the establishment was locked, the clerks and proprietors having gone to the fight.

From the evidence gained by the coroner, Edmonds went directly to the toilet, locked the door securely and, placing the gun at his right temple, pulled the trigger. No one heard the report.

Terrell Ketchell, a clerk in the store, saw blood running from beneath the door immediately upon his return from the fight. He immediately called B. K. Sweet, who climbed to the truss and saw the form of a man huddled in one corner of the toilet. Sweet was unable to identify the person at that time. Officers were immediately notified and the door was forced. Edmonds was dead when discovered and removed to the local morgue.

Edmonds was one of the most prominent young men of Taft, but notorious for his wild escapades in the Tenderloin districts, and has been spending much more than his apparent earnings. Manager Reed of the store, together with several assistants, spent the night in checking up the books. At an early hour this morning the work had not been completed.

Edmonds was a native of England, 31 years old and unmarried. He has been here but a few months and has no known relatives in the state.

MRS. EATON WEARIES ON CROSS EXAMINATION

Says Husband Ashamed of Drug Habit and Pretended to Use Whisky

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Oct. 27.—The cross-examination of Mrs. Jennie May Eaton was in initial for her life charged with poisoning her husband, Rear Admiral Eaton, was completed when court adjourned to night. She had then been on the stand twelve hours, six hours under direct examination Saturday and six hours in the hands of District Attorney Barker today and showed signs of fatigue.

Much of the examination today had to do with numerous letters written by the defendant. Regarding one of these, written in 1909, the witness said:

"The admiral's brain was full of drugs. He was almost childish at times, and should have been operated upon. If he had, he would be alive today."

Mrs. Eaton repeatedly contradicted testimony given by the witnesses for the prosecution, including that of her daughter Dorothy, who had said that her mother gave the admiral medicine and other beverages.

Mrs. Eaton admitted that she and her husband had been drinking together and she said she told the admiral about it and gave it to him with his knowledge, but the other time she did not use it.

"I never could have deceived Admiral Eaton. So expert was he in medicine that he would have detected it immediately," she said.

Some of the medicine she bought for the admiral he liked so well that he "ate it like pepper," she added.

Explaining a phrase in one of her letters which referred to the "golden rule," she said: "Eaton said he believed the admiral's mental condition was due in a large measure to his life aboard while in the navy."

Admiral Eaton was ashamed of his drug habit, the witness said, and often she had known him to sprinkle whisky on his coat and even on his mustache in order to give the impression that liquor was responsible for his condition.

WEIRD PLAY OF VERY FASCINATING NATURE AT BARTON TONIGHT

SCENE FROM "THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE"—BARTON TONIGHT

All who have read John Fox, Jr.'s fascinating story, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," and have followed the primitive mountain girl, June, along the lonely trail to the rugged, gaunt, lonesome pine that stood like a sentinel guarding Lonesome Cove, will be lost in happy bewilderment as they strike the same trail hewn by Eugene Walter, who has founded a play on the novel and for which Klaw and Erlanger have made a beautiful and massive production.

At the Barton tonight you will be introduced to June and to the man who means so much in her life at the very rise of the curtain. They meet in the shadow of the towering, whispering pine. Charlotte Walker, as June, barefoot and garbed in the ragged homespun dress of a rough mountaineer's daughter, foreshadowing from the first glimpse who has of the manly young engineer, the greatest of the miracles of girlhood, the dawn of love and true womanhood. Her cousin Dave, who hopes to marry her, casts a shadow of jealousy across the trail as he watches in sheer desperation the awakening of June's love for the tall, swarthy, rugged, and handsome man, an unconscious wooing that sweeps onward with the freshness of an upland breeze. The dawn of her love strikes strong when, talking her first farewell of Hale, she says: "I will always wait for you, Jack, beneath the whispering pine." Jack persuades June's father, to send her to the new school in the Gap, where she stays until she hears the rumors regarding herself and Hale, and which the playwright makes the cause for the feud's renewal. Her cousin Dave tries to shoot Hale, but wounds Berkley, who is carried into the cabin by June's father. June can hardly conceal the relief she feels that it is not the man whom she loves who has been hit by Dave's bullet. However, duty is stronger than love with Hale, at least he causes June to believe so, and he demands the surrender of Dave. June refuses to disclose his hiding place, and here Walter's master hand is apparent, for he has June deliver a heart-rending scene, an epic on the law of the family and the law of the land. Berkley, who has been listening intently all the time to June's talk on love and duty, denies that Dave is the one who shot him, and here Walter's master hand is apparent, for he has June deliver a heart-rending scene, an epic on the law of the family and the law of the land. Berkley, who has been listening intently all the time to June's talk on love and duty, denies that Dave is the one who shot him, and here Walter's master hand is apparent, for he has June deliver a heart-rending scene, an epic on the law of the family and the law of the land.

The women revel in the beautiful love story that is unfolded in the charming Sienkiewicz romance, while the children appreciate its vast aid to their study of Roman history and take particular delight in the big spectacular features—the burning of Rome—the chariot races—combats of the gladiators and thrilling experiences of the Christians when thrown to the hungry lions in the arena—and the grown-up children, the men, seem to enjoy it as much as their wives and offspring. It has a wonderful appeal to all society and is doing a remarkable business.

The next sale opens next Thursday morning, reserved seat prices being 25, and 50 cents.

William Faversham

There is a suggestion of the new German idea of staging in one of the scenes in William Faversham's production of Julius Caesar, which he is bringing to the Barton next Saturday evening, November 1st.

This is the scene showing the garden of Brutus at night. The back drop is a vision velvet so hung that when the spot lights play upon it the effect of limitless distance is conveyed in a singularly illustrative manner. Again this background is a single "cut-out" tree which looks a hundred times more real than if it were solidly built up. This is because an appeal is made to the imagination of the spectators. This whole scene is essentially in keeping with the revolutionary idea of Prof. Max Reinhardt, who is, just at present the most talked-of man in theatrical Europe.

The next sale for Mr. Faversham's engagement will open tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock.

EXCELLENT BILL

PLEASES AUDIENCE

Hagan and Ross, Empire entertainers

The bill at the Empire for the first half of the week is one that meets with general approval. The acts are all good and the applause tells what the crowds think of them. Although the first shows opened with one act missing, there is no dissatisfaction, as Manager Hesse's explanation was entirely suitable. The Three Campbells were held up by a train-wreck and could not appear.

But in place of the Three Campbells, Manager Hesse has secured William J. Burton, one of the cleverest and most versatile of vaudeville comedians. Burton is one of the most genial fellows in the world and his eccentric ways and genuine laugh-making fun bring out the mirth in a thoroughly satisfying manner. Burton came in yesterday and will be here tonight. He is known in vaudeville as one of the most successful comedians.

The high class harmony singing and yodeling of Hagan and Ross is another feature that is highly entertaining. This pair possess unusually sweet voices and their choice of songs is in good taste for an act of this sort.

Aggoston & Smith have something to offer that appeals especially to lovers of good music. Their character singing and violin music is highly pleasing.

A fun maker of the first order is Billy Howard in his "Squeezing Messengers" monologue. Billy has something new every second and his character make-up is a scream. His stories and jokes are the kind that appeal to people, for the applause is continued and sincere. His work is a treat.

The McFarlands, Kathryn and Carol, are a well-liked pair. They appear in full dress at first and sing some really high class songs. Then they don the makeup and become rubes in one of the best acts of this kind that has been seen for some time. They are a clever pair and the applause they get is well merited.

The pictures are the very best that can be secured, being Majestic and Keystone; the only house showing them in Fresno is the Empire. Tomorrow there is an entire change of bill. Tomorrow evening given each night, one at 7:45 and one at 9:15. Phone 1032 and have your seats reserved.

LOCAL PEOPLE IN

PORTOLA PICTURES

Majestic Theater Secures

Portola Pictures for

Four Days

The Majestic theater has secured pictures of the recent Portola celebration which was held in San Francisco last week. They were secured by special arrangement and are the first to be exhibited outside of San Francisco.

A number of prominent local people who took part in the parade are shown in this film. The portion of the parade in which Fresno people appeared is featured in this particular reel of pictures, and the big crowds who attend the Majestic during the next four days will recognize scenes of well known Fresno.

This is the first time on record that a film of such a famous event has ever been shown in Fresno so soon after the occurrence of the event.

The Majestic is constantly improving, both in the character of the performances and in the class of people who attend. A special effort is being made to attract the better class of theater-goers, and in this much success has been gained. Instead of making the audience as is customary in most theaters, a certain portion is reserved for Orientals and another portion for whites. This is satisfactory to both factions. More and more people from this side of the track are to be found in the audiences.

AMATEURS TONIGHT.
It is amateur night to night, too, and that is assurance of a full house. The amateur who appears at the Majestic is a source of endless joy. There is never any failure in the crop of would-be stars, and their contribution to the bill is always hailed with delight.

Two performances are given, each night with an entire change of program. Wednesday and Sunday Matinees are given on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. The theater is one of the most comfortable and up-to-date in the valley; it is not surpassed by any in Fresno.

FELON WANTED IN LODI CAUGHT HERE

Harry Holden, wanted in Lodi on a felony charge, was arrested at Riverdale yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Thorwaldson and lodged in the county jail last night. The sheriff's office received word yesterday that Holden was wanted and his description was given. He was located and placed under arrest. The Lodi officers have been notified of the arrest. The nature of the charge is not known by the Fresno officers.

FLAMING OIL GUSHER IS QUIET SHORT TIME

Fire Is Quenched, But Is Soon Burning; Subsidized Only Four Minutes

Taft, Oct. 27. — For a period of four minutes Friday night the crew of workmen who had for hours fought the flames of the burning K. T. & O. gusher, were given a respite from the intense heat and fumes of the miniature volcano, for the fire was suddenly extinguished and the oil flowed peacefully into the crater.

The relief, however, was short, for the walls of the crater, red hot from seven days of heating, soon ignited the fluid and the monster was alive again. Shortly before 10 o'clock the 4,000-barrel tank erected the day before was filled with this mud and the steam lines were ready at the edge of the crater. At a signal the steam was turned on and the heavy-muffled water was turned into the Y-shaped hole around the flaming column. There was a great spluttering as a heavy cloud of steam darkened the area around the well and blinded the workmen. The battle was kept up by the fire-fighters for several minutes and when the breeze cleared away the steam the crater was apparently fireless.

By this time the strength was gone from the walls and the steam was dissipated until the fire was again in control. As the oil rose to the sides of the crater it was again ignited and, though the men battled as best they could, they were unable to cope with it. Almost instantly the column of fire rose again and the hard night's work was lost.

NEW STEAMER WILL USE LIQUID FUEL

The Governor and President of the same line will be equipped for the consumption of liquid fuel by the first

STANDARD BRINGS IN LOST HILLS GUSHER

No. 28 Well Comes In With Flow of 2,000; Oilfield People Enthusiastic

LOST HILLS, Oct. 27. — The bringing in of Standard No. 28 well, with a flow of 2,000 barrels has created intense excitement in this oilfield. The well is located on section 4, adjoining the camp houses and on account of possible danger to the buildings, preparations were at once made to control the well. Despite the heavy gas pressure, three sets of gate valves (throttle the oil).

As a result of the bringing in of this well Lost Hills oil men are rushing material to the Lost Hills to begin work upon leases. Lost Hills now shows the greatest activity to be experienced.

Volcan No. 7, the big gusher brought in last week is now flowing 1,100 barrels a day of 35 gravity oil. The new General Petroleum gusher No. 5 is flowing 550 barrels of the same gravity. Both companies are erecting two new derricks adjoining the wells and the Standard No. 34 is also rigging up. Nos. 20 and 31 were cemented this week and No. 29 cemented. The Standard's five big trucks are working night and day hauling 600 tons of casing from Vazco to the Lost Hills.

As a result of the recent big strikes a rate war is on between the stage cars from Vazco and the rate has now been reduced to $2.50.

San Francisco parties have incorporated the Lost Hills Realty company and this week bought the Lost Hills townsite from Martin & Delaney. The consideration is given at about $150,000. Joseph Loeb, president of the company, took an option on the town site sixty days ago and the day before the option expired two big gushers came in and the deal was consummated.

LIMITED WILL REDUCE OUTPUT AT COALINGA

Will Curtail Production Till Completion of Big Storage Tank

COALINGA, Oct. 27. — The California Oilfield, Limited, is shutting down some of the producing wells, is the current report from the East Side field. The drilling wells were carried low the water sand and cemented, and the producing wells are being shut down. Such of the producing wells as will be safe to shut in are being shut down. A number of men have been laid off and no reason given other than that "these are the orders."

The production of the property has been around 14,000 barrels per day. The contract with the Standard will expire about November 15th. The company is not prepared to care for this production. It is not presumed that the Royal Dutch-Schell would make a contract with the Standard at this time, so it is deemed best to shut down for a period as yet indefinite. The London oil journals have had several items of late in which statements were made that the Royal Dutch-Schell has been using in handling the production of their California holdings. It is not certain that these tankers are now available, and the oil is in the field with no way to ship it to the seaboard except through the "Common Carrier" pipe lines under the law passed by the late Legislature.

The Royal Dutch-Schell people will have all equipment necessary to meet their business requirements, as the great factor in a large marketing concern is equipment, the most important being transportation. The sea in this case. The California Oilfield Limited will have its 750,000 barrel reinforced concrete reservoir ready to receive oil about December 15. Until then the storage capacity on the property will not take care of the production. The situation is interesting and will be watched by oil men on this coast.

BRIEF OIL NOTES OF COALINGA

COALINGA, Oct. 27. — Reports from the hills along the Jacolitas and Walham creeks state that the springs are rising. This will enable some of the companies to resume development work, and the latter can prepare for his annual assessment work, as required by the United States mineral laws governing in such cases, as the springs raising at this time of the year is the old sign of approaching rains.

The Home Oil company on section 20, 19-15, one of the first companies in this field, lost rig No. 1 last week by fire. It is supposed the fire started from a gas engine used in pumping the well. A new rig is now building and the well will be on the beam this week.

The Clarmont Oil company on section 24, 20-14, cemented off the water sand in its No. 9 well about ten days ago and is now putting in the 8 1/2-inch string, which will be carried into the oil sand.

The Union Oil company on section 4, 20-15 will shortly resume operations on La Vista well No. 4. The work was shut down some months ago and the formation studied. Water Commissioner Met. Kirwin has made a number of very comprehensive cross-section maps of the territory surrounding and controlling section 20-15, that will enable the operator to more intelligently direct the drilling.

The Future Success Oil company in the Parkfield district on section 18, 23-15, has its No. 1 well cemented at 1,504 feet with 6 1/2-inch casing. E. C. Baker using his process. Nine sacks of cement were put in the hole and a good job is looked for. The formation, in which the water sand was shut off, is brown shale, supposed to overlay the oil sand as indicated by the outcropping.

The Potter people on section 35, 20-14 are building a rig for well No. 5, just north of well No. 4. Well No. 4 came in a strong gas well a few weeks ago, and has greatly decreased in its flow of gas and water. As soon as well No. 5 is completed, well No. 4 will be drilled into the oil sand.

TRAFFIC ORDINANCE "SLASHING" IS ENDED

All Vehicles for Hire Must Be Stationed in Restricted District

The ordinance committee of the city trustees had another three hours' conference yesterday and finished its work "slashing." City Attorney Smith's reported draft of a traffic ordinance in accordance with the changes, emendations and suggestions of the committee and probably submit the ordinance in its new form at the board meeting on Monday, November 8.

The most important change was to amend a district down town where no vehicle for hire shall be permitted to stand on the street curb. This district is bounded by the center line of J street, the southern line of M street, the eastern line of K and the southern line of Kern. According to these lines, vehicles for hire may not stand on the K street frontage of the courthouse reservation.

This provision was the unanimous suggestion of the committee and was designed to relieve the congested condition in the restricted district primarily by providing more space for vehicles and with this provision to away with the one in the ordinance forbidding any vehicle to stand longer anywhere in the congested district than thirty minutes. This section was eliminated and the only thirty-minute time limit retained in the proposed ordinance was the one for vehicles while loading or unloading or taking on passengers.

The committee decided to retain the suggestion of the committee and was designed to relieve the congested condition in the restricted district primarily by providing more space for vehicles and with this provision to away with the one in the ordinance forbidding any vehicle to stand longer anywhere in the congested district than thirty minutes. This section was eliminated and the only thirty-minute time limit retained in the proposed ordinance was the one for vehicles while loading or unloading or taking on passengers.

$90,960 In Interest

State Treasurer E. D. Roberts wrote yesterday to the supervisors, accepting the bid of Fresno county for $150,000 bonds for the state highway, and stating that he has allotted bonds of July 8, 1913, due in 1918 and 1919.

The county will pay $150,000 face value, plus the 4 per cent interest computed from the time of issue to actual date of delivery. This advanced interest money to be refunded with the first six months interest payment.

Clerk Ewing has as a matter of curiosity done some figuring to show what a good investment this bond purchase will be, and his figures show that for the sixteen years until redemption the county will have drawn $100,000 in interest and the bond face value paid on refunding the transaction will have involved $240,960 on the $150,000 investment.

Interest on the bonds is payable at 4 per cent every six months and according to the terms of the issue $125,000 will be refunded in fifteen and $24,000 in sixteen years. The bonds will be delivered whenever the county has the money ready. The purchase will be consummated at the November meeting of the board in the expectation of an agreement with the state highway commission that the construction of the highway in this county from Fresno city to the county line may be started speedily upon award of the contract.

The county is prepared at any time to count forward with the bond purchase money and make the payment without having to draw one cent from the $202,000 on call loan to local banks at 2 per cent.

NEGLECTED WIVES GRANTED DIVORCES

Garabed Terzian In Default for Not Paying $3 As Alimony

Lola Ellis was given divorce yesterday by Judge Austin from Fred Ellis on the ground of cruel treatment. According to her recital of married tribulations, he began drinking alcohol from the time of marriage in 1908, has at such frequent times that she has forgotten dates and months, and has been cruelly treated, threatened to kill her, and neglected his duty as a provider because a gambler and the companion of gamblers. The growing piece of cruelty was when he forcibly took away their child in August, 1912. He was compelled recently under court order to restore the child because it was ill and required a mother's care.

Asserting that he was simply too lazy to work, Judge Austin divorced Mary F. D'Andrea from Manuel J. D'Andrea and ordered him to pay one-half of his $40 monthly wages as a farm laborer for the support of four children. They separated in January last after a married life of 15 1/2 years. She has supported herself since and the separation and two brothers assisted to care for the children.

Celia was ordered by Judge Austin requiring the defendant in the marriage annulment case of Marline Terzian against Garabed Terzian to show cause why he has not paid her $3 a month alimony. Her attorneys have been importing the court for orders compelling him to surrender personal property, he having complied in part only and claiming that an undelivered watch is community property.

Certrude Pickle sued J. E. Pickle for divorce on the ground of desertion, Harold and Walters bringing the suit for her.

COURT ORDERS IN PROBATED ESTATES

Loan Authorized On Chinatown Lots—Mrs. Byrd Bonds for $65,000

An order was made yesterday in the estate of W. H. McKenzie by Judge Austin, authorizing T. G. Hart, A. H. McKenzie and Mrs. Carrie E. McKenzie as executors and executrix to borrow $12,000 secured by mortgage on a north end lot 12-19 in Fresno city block 50, with frontages on Tulare and F streets. The money is needed to pay the estate's cost of the cost of this building recently erected on the lots in part from the salvaged material from the old Pike building, showing being made and the estate's one-third interest has been largely increased in profit and rentals by reason of the construction.

Petition is made in the estate of C. F. Howell to sell two jewelry stores at Dinuba and Reedley, estate valued at $12,000.92 and debts not exceeding $10,000. Sale is necessary to pay off debts and because both stores cannot be run save at loss. Personal property was set aside to the widow and a family allowance of $100 a month ordered.

Judge Austin placed Mrs. Sarah C. Byrd as administratrix of the estate of the late John J. Byrd under a bond of $65,000, which is about one-half of the value of the estate. Despite the great value of the property, no will was left.

Order was made in the estate of William W. Machen setting aside to Sarah Machen as the surviving wife and as a homestead the 6 1/2 of lot 14 in Griffith Villa addition to Fresno, not exceeding $5,000 in value.

Mrs. Emma C. Snodgrass gave three bonds each of $6,000 as guardian of the minors David E., Eleanor and Harold Snodgrass. The bonds are with M. Vincent, M. Sides and W. G. Freeland, all of Selma, as the sureties.

Langford Gets Lester in 4 Rounds of Fighting

EBONY FIGHTER KNOCKS TAFT BOXER TO FLOOR FIVE TIMES

Tap of Gong At Count of Nine Saves Lester From Knockout In Fourth; Boston Tar Baby Chides Opponent At Every Turn; 1500 Attend

(Special to the Republican.)
TAFT, Oct. 27.—Jack Lester's dream of championship honors in the heavy weight division was rudely shattered by Sam Langford, the Boston tar baby, here today. The ebony fighter got the decision over the local aspirant at the opening of the fifth, when Lester failed to come up after the bell had saved him from a knockout at the end of the fourth. It is estimated that 1500 people saw the bout. It was a battle of a novice and a veteran, not an exhibition of the manly art in any respect, but a slaughter of a victim with great hopes. From the opening going it was evident that Lester had no show with the dark boy from Boston.

At the opening of the fourth Lester met Langford in the center of the ring in a duzed condition. Langford shot a left to Lester's chin, knocking the head fighter's head back. Lester forced a clinch, Langford raised both hands in the air and walked about the ring. Langford forced Lester into the negro's corner, and delivered a straight left to the jaw. Lester went to the floor for the count of five. The crowd cheered wildly. The Taft boy's supporters pleaded for him to tear into the negro. Lester was groggy when he again faced Langford. The Boston boxer bore in, hitting Lester on the green lights. Cries of "Foul" rang out for several minutes. Lester assumed a tortured attitude. Referee Charley Blake ruled the blow fair and the fight proceeded.

At this point Langford went a little wild. To the majority of the crowd it seemed an intentional attitude. Langford bore in with a determined attitude playing strong for Lester. A straight punch to the stomach put Lester to the mat for the count of nine. The local boy came back, his face writhing with pain. Again Langford delivered the body punch and Lester went down. He lay gasping on the mat until the count of seven, when he dragged himself to his feet and again faced the negro. Again a body punch put Lester to the floor but the local fighter came back at the count of five. Langford struck his terrific right to the jaw, Lester went down again, only the tap of the gong at the count of nine, saving Lester from a knock out. Referee Blake declared Langford the winner at the opening of the fifth. The announcement was well received. Technically the blow was not a knock out, but it ended the fight.

NEGRO LEADS FIGHTING

Langford led the attack in the opening round with a left to the body and a flash followed. It was a second in the same spot, then shot a right to Lester's face. Lester retaliated

Yell Defiance at Blood Disorder

A Remedy That Has Shown a Most Remarkable Purifying Effect.

At Last You Can Get Rid of Blood Trouble—S. S. S.

The word Medicine is one of the most abused in our language. There are certain medicinal properties just as necessary to health as the food we eat. Take for example, the well-known medicine S. S. S. This famous blood purifier contains medicinal components just as vital and essential to healthy blood as the elements of wheat, rye, beef, the fats and the sugars that make up our daily ration. As a matter of fact, there is one ingredient in S. S. S. which serves the active purpose of stimulating each cellular part of the body to the healthy and judicious selection of its own essential nutriment. This is why it regenerates the blood supply; why it has such a tremendous influence in overcoming Rheumatism, Catarrh of the Stomach and Intestines, skin eruptions and all blood troubles. And in regenerating the blood, S. S. S. has a rapid and positive antitoxin effect upon all those irritating influences that cause sore throat, weak eyes, loss of weight, thin, pale cheeks and that weariness of muscle and nerve that leads many people into the dangerous path of stimulants and narcotics. Get a bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store, and in a few days you will not only feel bright and energetic, but you will be the picture of good health. S. S. S. is prepared only in the laboratory of The Swift Specific Co., 215 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., who maintain a very efficient medical department where all who have any blood disorder of a stubborn nature may consult freely.

S. S. S. is sold everywhere by drug stores, department and general stores. Don't permit anyone to sell you a substitute. Insist upon S. S. S.

JOSEPHS MET WITH TWO CHALLENGES; CANNOT ACCEPT YET

Disappointed with the result of Sunday's match, G. Plumbo of San Francisco last night announced that he would challenge Aram Josephs to a return match with a thousand dollar side bet, such a match to be held in a roped ring, the sooner the better. Josephs declared later that he was willing to accept the challenge, but asserted it would be impossible for some time, as Dr. Sample had forbidden him to wrestle again within the next three months. Plumbo says if he should lose he will quit the game. George Nicholson, a San Francisco wrestler, sends in a communication declaring his willingness to wrestle Josephs for a side bet of $200 and maintaining that Josephs had refused to meet him. Josephs states that he has been after Nicholson for a match for some time and is willing to meet him as soon as possible.

FRESNO BOYS RETURN; THEY DID THEIR BEST

Many Athletes of Olympic Fame Fail to Score In Portola Meet

The runners-of the Fresno Youth Men's Athletic Association returned yesterday from the Portola track and field championships, minus medals, but with the honor of having done their best. The best made by the Fresno boys was finishing in two of the heats. Fred Twining came in third in the 100 yard dash in a final heat, and W. P. Parker qualified for the half-mile run. No local men showed up in the finals and in the relay race they were outdistanced by U. C. men and the mixed team of U. S. C. and Pomona college.

That they made no points reflects no disgrace on their ability for their training period was but brief, and Fred Thompson, the champion all-around athlete of the world, the Los Angeles man who outpointed the Indian, Therpe, was entered in many events but did not make a point. Pete Gearhart, a runner who had been in the Olympic games did not get placed in any event.

The day was cold and foggy, with a raw wind sweeping the grounds, and owing to the early hour the Fresno boys had to appear in order to enter the try-outs, they were on the field all day and were nearly chilled when the relay—the last event of the day—was run.

The Oakland Tribune published a picture of the local Y. M. C. A. runners, predicting that some Fresno men would be entered in their annual Marathon next year.

"Young Hackensmith" Who Will Wrestle at Y. M. C. A.

Claimant to World's Championship Title as Wrestler in Bantam and Feather-Weight Classes

E. Farrer, known professionally as "Young Hackensmith," for the last five years undisputed claimant to the bantam and featherweight wrestling championships of the world, will give an exhibition wrestling match at the Young Men's Christian Association next Tuesday evening at an entertainment scheduled by the physical department. Farrer will meet some mat artist at the local Y. M. C. A. and demonstrate the holds which Gitch and Zbyzaco made famous.

The affair is to be under the direction of Director Charles H. Toss and Ben Brown, chairman of athletics of the Y. M. C. A. and will include exhibitions of boxing, wrestling, etc. Several of the proteges in those branches of the physical work of the Y. M. C. A. have become very proficient and an evening of interest is promised. The program will be announced in a few days.

"Young Hackensmith," though still a young man, has made a remarkable record in wrestling, training under the great masters, and acquiring the championship of the world in his own class, but asserts that he intends to retire from the professional field and may decide to locate permanently in this city.

Hackensmith—whose real name is Farrer and who maintains that Geradine Farrer, the great singer, is his sister—was born in Bellefont, Australia and there received his early training. He later trained under George Hackensmith, former world's champion, and for eighteen months toured the United States with the renowned Gitch, present heavyweight champion.

He won the world's championship five years ago when he wrestled the title from Ed Wilkies of England. He had two matches with Wilkies, the first before the National Sporting Club in England, where he wrestled for two hours and forty-five minutes without either man securing a fall. The second match was fought out in Madison Square Garden, New York, and was won by Hackensmith, who secured the first fall in forty eight minutes with a double hammerlock that dislocated both shoulders of his opponent.

Since that time Hackensmith has found few matches at his own weight being compelled to meet light and heavyweight wrestlers on the mat at handicaps. His last appearance was in Stockton last Friday when he defeated Bert Harvey, champion of the British navy who weighed 150 pounds, securing the first fall in seven minutes, the second in nine minutes. A short time before he wrestled Harvey who gave him a handicap, agreeing to throw him twice in an hour. Hackensmith weighs but 115 pounds.

He lately met and defeated Eddie O'Connell of Portland, Peter Huzukos and E. L. Caldwell of Stockton, all of whom outwrestled him.

Hackensmith is proficient in Y. M. C. A. physical work, having been wrestling instructor at the associations in Toronto and Hamilton, Canada, and physical director at Gault, Ontario, Canada.

POISON FOUND IN COFFEE AT SCHOOL

Inmate Attempts to Kill Members of Oregon Institution

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 27.—Strychnine, in sufficient quantity to cause the death of all the inmates of the State Industrial School at Salem, was found in the coffee served in the school Sunday when the matron, Miss Esther Hopkins, tasted the beverage. Investigation brought a statement from three girls that they had put the poison into the coffee at the request of Mrs. Edith Crestwell, an inmate.

The matter was suppressed until it could be brought before Governor West today, when it was decided to prosecute Mrs. Crestwell. Her motive is said to have been revenge.

Howell, a new acquisition by the Merchants, pitched a consistent game, but had poor support. Therman pitched for the Giants.

In this gun the "kick" is minimized to the last degree. It has other distinctive features to recommend it, as an inspection will show.

WHO WAS THE FIRST POET LAUREATE?

The English laureates from Dryden's time have been: Thomas Shadwell (1659-82), Nahum Tate (1692-1715), Nicholas Rowe (1715-1733), Laurence Eburne (1733-1739), Colley Cibber (1739-1757), William Whitehead (1758-1761), Thomas Warton (1758-1780), Henry James Pye (1780-1813), Robert Southey (1813-1843), William Wordsworth (1843-1850), Alfred Tennyson (1850-1892), Alfred Austin (1892-1913) and the present laureate is Dr. Robert Bridges, recently appointed.

The office of poet-laureate of England is a rather trying one and it would be difficult for future appointees to come up so fully to all the requirements as Alfred Tennyson, and even his predecessors, Southey and Wordsworth. Being a court official formerly, he was considered responsible for producing formal and appropriate verses on birthdays and state occasions, but his activity in this respect has varied according to circumstances, and the custom ceased to be obligatory after Pye's death.

Wordsworth stipulated, before accepting the honor, that no formal effusions from him should be considered a necessity, but Tennyson was generally happy in his numerous poems of this class. The emoluments of the post have varied considerably and the "tinea of Canary wine" has been omitted as to recent laureates. The poet laureate is a development the origin of which is in doubt.

CORRECTLY CLASSIFIED

A Washington man, who was being shown through one of the ancestral homes in Shenandoah Valley by an aged colored servant, stopped before a portrait.

"What a fine painting!" he exclaimed. "Why, that must be an old master."

"Excuse me, boss," said the retainer, "but you're mistaken. That's the picture of old Missus Taylor." — From Lippincott's Magazine.

HOSTELRY OWNER TELLS THE PUBLIC

What He Thinks About the Results He Received From the Use of Plant Juice

J. L. Flanagan, who has been in the hotel business in Sacramento for the past 26 years, and who is one of the best known hotel men in the United States, has been completely cured by Plant Juice. Mr. Flanagan is the proprietor and manager of the new Travelers' Hotel at Fifth and J streets, Sacramento. The structure is to be seven stories, and will contain 257 rooms with telephones, hot and cold water, circulating ice water and baths. There will be 22 large ample rooms, a handsome lobby, 357½ feet, and a marbled floor of 1536 square feet. This hotel will be finished on September 1, 1913, at the cost of $510,000. Mr. Flanagan is a very prosperous man and a most efficient hotel manager. He lives at 171 Eighth street, Sacramento, and has given this statement about Plant Juice:

"I believe that Plant Juice is the most wonderful remedy that has ever been offered to the public anywhere. It certainly brought a wonderful change in my condition. Now I am as active as a boy, and I take great pleasure in recommending it to others who may suffer with any disorder of the liver."

Plant Juice is new; it is purely vegetable, made from the juices of medicinal plants gathered from all parts of the earth and combined with the greatest skill and care of science. If you suffer from any derangement of the stomach, kidneys, liver or blood, if you have indigestion, biliousness, constipation or nervous debility, if you are in a general run-down condition, or, in fact, suffer any departure from your normal good health, Plant Juice will do you more good than anything you have ever tried. THE BOARD WAS ALL RIGHT. South Trimble, the clerk of the House of Representatives, morrily chuckled the other evening when one of the party referred to the easy way some people have of explaining a discrepancy. He was reminded, he said, of the proprietor of a country hotel in one of the eastern states.

Some time ago, according to the story told by Mr. Trimble, a man was traveling along the road when he saw a sign announcing that the Rural Inn was a hundred yards further on.

"Say, old man," remarked the traveler to the landlord when he finally reached the hotel, "what's the matter with that sign of yours down the road yonder? Isn't it a trifle mixed?"

"A trifle mixed?" wonderingly responded the proprietor. "I don't get you."

"It says a hundred yards to the hotel," returned the traveler, "and if it isn't three-quarters of a mile my tape measure is twisted."

"The sign is all right," declared the proprietor with a smile of enlightenment. "The whole trouble lies with the man who put it up. He got it in the wrong place." — Philadelphia Telegraph.

CARGOES AND DISCOVERIES

The boats put out from various strands. They needs must voyage from all lands.

Many there are, well found and trim.

That seek no far horizon's rim;

Content to span their sails and go

Along the ways that all men know.

God does not bless them, for He sees

Their blessing lies in things like these.

He will not bless, since blast they ply

"Twixt a ruffled sea and well-comped sky.

But those who hoist the sail and set

The prow for seas uncharted yet;

Who lope themselves to the great surge

Of unknown currents through the surge

In darkness when they can but feel,

The wallowing waste, the trembling keel;

For such, if they come not to land,

Heid in the hollow of His hand,

If drowned they die in seas of doubt,

'Tis with God's blessing wrapped about.

—Grace McGowan Cooke in November Nautilus.

YOUNG HOPEFUL

"Were you ever confronted by an awful possibility?" had then spent an hour worrying for fear it might happen?" asked the jovial Rosa Stahl.

"That was the case with a certain small boy."

In the soft twilight of the sultry summer day another young man, Young Hopeful, standing in a brown study by the greenhouse door. His hands were clasped before him, his face dejectedly parted.

"Why, what's the matter, lambs?" asked rather bending over him.

"I'm finkin', muvver."

"What about, little man?"

"Have guseberries any legs, muvver?"

"Why, not, of course not, dearie."

"A deep shade fell across Young Hopeful's face as he raised his eyes to hers.

"Then, muvver, I fink I've swallowed a caterpillar!" — Young's Magazine.

A LITERARY PREFERENCE

A reference to books the other night reminded Senator John R. Thornton of Louisiana of the literary conversation between Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. Smith, according to the narrative of the senator, was very fond of reading, and while on a visit to Mrs. Brown one afternoon she started a book talk with a view to discovering what particular book her husband liked best.

"You have quite a number of books, I see," remarked the visitor, glancing around the room. "Which do you think is the most helpful to you?"

"Webster's Dictionary," without a doubt, was the prompt response of Mrs. Brown.

"You really don't mean it?" exclaimed the visitor, assuming for some reason a look of surprise. "May I ask in what particular way?"

"Certainly," was the obliging reply of the hostess. "The baby sits on it at the table and it saves the price of a high chair." — Philadelphia Telegraph.

COMPETITION

Hot and stuffy was the auction room, and packed, too—yes, even packed to its utmost capacity.

Suddenly through the crowd pressed a large, important-looking person and held converse with the auctioneer—converse low, deep and awe-inspiring.

Then up spoke the auctioneer to the multitude assembled:

"Gentlemen," he said, "I am informed that a pocketbook has been lost in this hall tonight containing 200 pounds in bank-notes."

A great hush fell upon the assembly.

"Yes," continued the custodian of the hammer, "and, owing to other valuable documents it contains, the gentleman will offer 50 pounds to anyone who returns it, while no questions will be asked."

"Again a silence, deep and unbroken. Then a fellow at the rear of the hall spoke up:

"I bid $1 pounds," he said.—Answers.

It took years of care and patience to produce my clever blend.

The first step was the selection of pure, wholesome tobacco, the best that grows.

Next was the combining of these leaves by experts to produce a cigarette of aromatic mildness.

In Northwest; Notes

KINGSBURG, Oct. 27.—There is one happy family in this vicinity due to the return home of Chester Palladino, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Palladino, after an absence of over two years, during which time his parents heard from him only a few times during the first few months of his absence. They had been considerably worried over his absence, and made efforts to get word from him. Their efforts were unavailing, but when the young man got ready, he came home. He had been through Oregon, Washington, and several of the provinces of the British Northwest, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, and perhaps other states. He had been well and was merely working his way from place to place, "seeing the world." The meeting of parents and son was naturally agreeable.

KINGSBURG FARMERS WILL MEET SATURDAY

To Discuss Water Situation
In Their District; Appoint Representatives

KINGSBURG, Oct. 27.—The water users of the River Bend district and vicinity will hold another meeting Saturday evening, November 1, to plan on definite action and to choose representatives to attend a meeting at a little later date in Fresno of the state railroad commission and the Consolidated Canal Co. These representatives will try to be prepared to make clear the contentions of the water users in their efforts to secure justice and a proper distribution of water from the canal company.

Among the questions the water users want to see justly settled are the following:

1. The determination of their exact rights.
2. Assurance that they are to secure those rights.
3. Inspection at the headgates to see that the proper flow is turned into each system.
4. The proper control of lateral ditches owned by ranchers.
5. Investigation to learn if the canal company has diverted water to five ranches, thus depriving water users of any portion of the water for which they pay.
6. Investigation to learn if the canal company has diverted water to five ranches, thus depriving water users of any portion of the water for which they pay.

With these questions properly determined and settled, the whole matter will be on a basis of justice to both sides and to all parties in interest, and justice at the hands of a railroad commission disposed to give justice to all is all that the water users ask.

He arose and went to the yard, leaving a lighted lamp in the kitchen. In a few moments he glanced toward the house and discovered that it was in flames. ## FIRE IN PORTERVILLE CAUSES $76,000 LOSS

Fertilizer Works Catch
From Bonfire and Are Totally Destroyed

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 27.—Sparks from a bonfire in the yards of the factory this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock set fire to the Armour Fertilizer Works, just south of the city limits, causing a blaze which completely destroyed the plant, entailing a loss of $76,000, which is fully covered by insurance.

Mexican laborers were burning discarded sacks and a sudden puff of wind carried sparks to the south end of the building, setting fire to the roof. The workmen endeavored unsuccessfully for some minutes to extinguish the blaze before turning in an alarm, and as a result the building was almost in ruins before the fire department was summoned.

Firemen succeeded in preventing the spread of the flames to cottages of workmen adjoining the building. Records and papers were saved from the office. It is probable that work will be started at once on replacing the plant.

TURLOCK, Oct. 27.—Maurice C. Mendoza was arrested last night by Deputy Sheriff E. T. Shaffer on a charge of mayhem preferred by Manuel Borge. Mendoza and Borge are partners on a rented ranch about five miles west of this city. Last evening a quarrel arose over partnership accounts and a fight ensued. It is claimed by Borge that in the mix-up Mendoza seized his ear with his teeth and bit off a portion of it; also that after getting him down his assailant jumped in his face with his heavy boots. Borge was in a deplorable condition when brought to town. His forehead and face was a mass of blood bruises and lacerations, while the lobe of the left ear was torn away. After swearing to the complaint he was placed under surgical care. Deputy Sheriff Shaffer went out to the ranch and arrested Mendoza, who had made no effort to get away. There was a scratch or bruise on the latter to indicate that he had been in a fight.

Mendoza is being held in the city jail pending his preliminary examination, which will be held before Justice Evans tomorrow.

PLAN FOR HOUSING FRUIT TRAIN CREWS

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 27.—In order to facilitate promptness of service to orange shippers of this district, the officials of the Southern Pacific and of the Pacific coast fruit growers association have provided for the board and lodging of train crews engaged in the orange handling at quarters provided for them in the freight yards. J. H. Dodds, assistant superintendent of the San Joaquin division of the S. P., and J. W. McClellens, division superintendent of the P. C. are here today to arrange for this addition. As practically all of the work is done at night in distributing cars over the East Side, and the hours of the men are very irregular, it is believed that this system will be an advantage.

The Home Beauty Parlor by Betty Dean

Marie: Your shortsightedness and squinting are probably caused by a weak and overworked condition of the eyes. Do not think your eyes are too serious; they can be relieved with the daily application of two or three drops at a time of this simple tonic. Dissolve an ounce of crystals in a pint of water. This will be a great comfort as well as a beautiful eye salve. The best way in the world to get rid of eye troubles is to use this simple remedy which you can mix at home. Get a quart of water, add one ounce of crystals, and dissolve it in 1 1/2 pints water. Take a table spoonful before meals. It will work magic with the "dreadful double vision" and you will experience no bad effects. High collars should be worn no more as possible. They increase the tendency to faulty thrust.

Miss L. C.: Here is a hair tonic which you can prepare at home at small expense and which is a genuine hair grower of heat and simplest kind. Be sure to keep your scalp clean by frequent shampooing with sulphur and then rub into your scalp this tonic, made by dissolving an ounce of quinine in a half pint of alcohol and adding one-half pint cold water. For all scalp troubles and badly nourished hair this is an unequalled remedy.

Oliver: I never recommended a hair dye, but unless it is much mistaken about your age, you should not have trouble with faded or gray hair for a long while. The best way to get rid of your hair troubles is to wash with castor oil occasionally. Use a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. It is the best remedy known of to remove dandruff and prevent brittleness, split ends, and the irritation caused by dandruff. It cleanses thoroughly, and has none of the objec-

To Be Absolutely Certain of the Genuine Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

observe the following three points of distinction:

- 1.—That the neck strap over the cork is unbroken. It's the seal of security.
- 2.—That our name and monogram are blown in the bottle. It's a certificate of merit.
- 3.—That the label bears our trade-mark of the "Old Chemist" and signature of the Company. It's a sign of the genuine.

Insist On Duffy's

Unscrupulous manufacturers and dealers sometimes take advantage of the nation-wide popularity of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a remedy for all mankind, by offering imitations and substitutes of the genuine for the sake of greater profit.

To guard your best interests, become familiar with the exact appearance of the bottle, the contents of which have done so much to relieve suffering and bring health and happiness into thousands of homes.

The original and genuine Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold in sealed bottles only by most druggists, grocers and dealers everywhere at $1.00 a large bottle. Valuable medical booklet and free advice from us if you write.

HUNT FOR MISSING GIRL ENDS IN BAKERSFIELD

Thelma Guest of Dinuba Is Caught By Father After Long Chase

Will Come Up In Visalia Juvenile Court Today; Disappeared Here

The search of L. L. Guest, a Dinuba rancher, for his 15-year-old daughter, who disappeared in Fresno on the last day of the Fresno district fair and who subsequently was followed from one county to another, during which the father disguised himself by shaving his beard, ended in Bakersfield Friday when the girl was caught by her father and Constable A. E. Gilliam of Visalia, and her case will come up today in the Visalia juvenile court. Guest, according to word from Visalia, had his daughter removed from the detention home and placed in the care of a matron at the county jail for fear she would make her escape. The Dinuba rancher is now of the opinion that he can control the actions of his daughter and will ask for her custody. Guest with the Visalia constable was in Bakersfield last week searching for his daughter, as word had been received that the girl was there in hiding. Guest was standing on the corner when he spied his daughter across the street. He started to walk toward her, and she, not recognizing her father, started in his direction. They went into the middle of the street. Guest immediately took charge of his child and she was later taken to Visalia and placed in the detention home. Thelma Guest is an exceptionally charming girl for her age and under peculiar circumstances she became separated from her parents at the fair on the last day. Search was immediately started for the girl, but it was not until the next morning that the girl informed Patrolman Jack Broad that she was lost. Little by little the girl told the story that she had fallen at the fair grounds, was rendered unconscious and taken in charge by a strange man and woman. She awoke the next day in a room at the Commercial lodging house. When the police went to investigate the man and woman had left the rooming house. Later in the day the father reported that his daughter was missing again. A few days later the father caused the detention in Hanford of the man and woman and they were returned to Fresno, but after being questioned by the district attorney were discharged. Since her arrest the girl has advanced the information that she recognized her father in Hanford, jumped into an automobile and disappeared before he saw her. According to reports from Visalia and Dinuba, the girl has refused to state why she ran away and where she has been, securing funds for her support and traveling expenses.

FRANK SHORT WILL DEFEND EWING ON SPEEDING CHARGE

Attorney Will Be Given Trial Wednesday In Police Court

Clinging to the advice that the man who pleads his own case has a fool for a client, Attorney Dave Ewing who will be tried Wednesday afternoon in the police court for speeding, has engaged Attorney Frank H. Short to defend him. The case will be tried before a jury. As Ewing is being prosecuted under a state law a representative of the district attorney's office will prosecute. Ewing was arrested during fair week near the Santa Fe and accused of traveling the block at a greater speed than is miles an hour. A prominent "wit" was in the car with Ewing and as the attorney possessed a new speedometer they were examining the line points when the arrest took place. Both are reported to have had their eyes glued on the registering needle when they traveled the block in question. Ewing said last night that Short would defend him but that he might have to call in others to speak a word in his behalf.

NEW FOLIOS FOR CHORUS ARRIVE

Work of Harmonizing Begins; Next Meeting Postponed Until Tuesday

At the regular rehearsal of the Fresno Male chorus, last evening, the music, which had been expected for the last two weeks, arrived, and the work of harmonizing the forty voices began. The new folios contain many very suitable pieces for men's voices, and several of these were taken up for rehearsal. The records of the chorus show a membership of forty-two, leaving only two vacancies to be filled by the voice committee, whose work it is to keep the perfect balance of the chorus undisturbed. The by-laws of the chorus provide, however, for an auxiliary membership of 150 voices, which may participate in concert work, and will be admitted to membership as fast as vacancies occur. Owing to the fact that the Fresno Musical club's concert falls on next Monday evening, and many of the members of the chorus had purchased tickets for this event, the members voted unanimously to postpone next week's rehearsal until Tuesday evening. It was the sense of the majority of the members that a section of the court would be shown to the Musical Club that should not be withheld.

TO MARK EPOCHS OF HISTORY ON SECTION OF SEQUOIA GIGANTEA

Epochs of history marked in the growth of a cross section of a Sequoia gigantea about eighteen feet in diameter will be one of the features of the forestry exhibit of Fresno county at the P. L. E. in San Francisco. The section will be two feet thick and will come from the trunk of the tree in the Kings River canyon. Arrangements for this part of the exhibit were made by Frank V. Dunham with W. F. Jones of the Home-Desmet Lumber Co. on a recent trip into the sequoias. One half of the log will be polished and the other will be left in its natural state. On the unpolished half, annotations marking the principal epochs of history will be placed in the rings, showing the approximate size of the tree at the time, such as at the birth of Christ, the fall of Rome, the invasion of England by William the Conqueror, the discovery of America, the Revolutionary War, the Civil War and the Spanish-American War.

TO OPEN COAST LINE AGAIN NOVEMBER 7TH

Charles H. Jasper, general freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific in the San Joaquin valley division, received word yesterday from Charles S. Fre, general passenger agent of the line with offices in San Francisco, that the normal service schedule along the coast line would be in effect again beginning November 7. This service was interrupted about the middle of September by a serious fire which partially destroyed tunnel No. 1. Since that time most of the trains have been routed through the San Joaquin valley that passed between San Francisco and Los Angeles. For a while the Southern Pacific had an auto stage line in service between the stations at either end of the tunnel so as to accommodate their passengers. This line, however, was discontinued a short time ago.

DR. SUN PLANS TO COME TO AMERICA

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 27.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who has been living quietly near Kobe since the suppression of the rebellion in Southern China, is contemplating a visit to Hawaii and the United States, according to William Thatcher of Boston, who arrived in Seattle yesterday after spending six years in the interior of China. The wealthy Chinese of Hawaii are Southerners and are ready to give further financial aid to Dr. Sun, he said.

VALUABLE VIOLIN STOLEN

OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 27.—A P. Frankenstein, a composer, has reported to the Oakland police that his violin, which he valued at $5,000, was stolen from a box by a hotel, sometime last week. Frankenstein came here from Los Angeles with the Shriners' band for the Portia festival in San Francisco. The bellboy has disappeared.

PETITION AGAINST FRESNO AVENUE PAVING, OUT

Also Protests Against Any Widening "For Benefit of Traction Co."

Two Plans for Widening Are Suggested; Curve Matter Being Held Up

The proposal to pave Fresno avenue from Silvia street to the city limits followed by talk of the advisability of widening the street between Silvia and Belmont avenues has aroused considerable agitation among the affected property owners and a petition is now in circulation, protesting against the paving and against any widening that might be contemplated. J. E. Schramm, of 3345 Fresno avenue, has been circulating the petition of protest and he stated last night that he had about twenty signatures. "I am circulating this petition from the poor man's point of view," said Schramm. "The property owners are not wealthy people and to many of them, a paving assessment would come as a distinct hardship. I have been securing only the names of this class of people. Two wealthy men owning property on Fresno avenue expressed a desire to sign the petition, but I did not get their signatures, because they rent their properties and their attitude was purely a selfish one." The petition will probably be presented to the trustees at their next meeting or at the next following meeting, at the latest. While there has been considerable talk of widening the street, there have been no definite steps taken as yet to get this done. The petition of protest, asserts that the signers are not in favor of widening the street "for the benefit of the Fresno Traction Company."

WIDENING PLANS

Fresno avenue, between Silvia and Belmont, is but 60 feet wide, while Belmont on to the city limits it is 70 feet wide. The west side of Fresno avenue north of Belmont is flush with the west side south of Belmont. One plan considered has been to cut off six or eight feet from the east side of the avenue to preserve uniformity and prevent a jog at Belmont. The people on the east side of the street, who have heard of this plan, however, are violently opposed to it and assert that they will carry the matter into the courts, if an attempt is made to carry it out. A second plan, regarded as more feasible, although still leaving a jog at Belmont avenue. This plan is to take off four feet of sidewalk on each side of the street, thus adding eight feet to the roadway. The sidewalks are now 12 feet in width. By doing this sidewalk trees on the outside of the sidewalk would have to be cut down, but nothing would be taken from lots, whereas under the first plan the people of the west side would lose about six feet off their lots. Although various officials of the city administration have talked over the matter of widening Fresno avenue, it was asserted yesterday that nothing definite has been decided upon.

FRESNO AVENUE CURVE

City Engineer Croukhite has outlined a proposal for the widening of the curve at Fresno avenue and Silvia street, but said yesterday that he could not get deeds until the question of widening the street had been settled. If it is left at this present width, only a small portion of adjoining lots will be cut off, but if it is widened, the curve will also have to be widened to some extent to make the curb lines flush. Three property owners are affected by this curve but it was stated that one had already signified a willingness to deed a small portion to the city. The remaining two are yet to be seen. A fence has been put around one property line at the curve but at the city engineer's office it is stated that this fence is not on the true property line. In another portion of the present curve, the property line extends out beyond the present curb line. The city engineer's plan provides for a tapering curve, widening as it enters into Fresno street. It also provides for a tapering sidewalk, widening the opposite way, into Fresno avenue.

GREET CHINESE ON WAY TO DEPORTATION

Local Orientals Hold Levee With 138 Fellow-Countrymen At S. P. Depot

Chinese of Fresno turned out in scores last evening to greet two carloads of their fellow-countrymen who were at the Southern Pacific depot for an hour awaiting train connections to take them to San Francisco for deportation.

There were 138 Orientals in charge of John Harper, Immigration Inspector of New York City, and Charles T. Cornwell, Immigration Inspector of Los Angeles. Many were from New York City, others from New Orleans, Tucson and El Paso. Thirty-eight came from Los Angeles. All will be deported to China shortly after their arrival in San Francisco.

When the cars waited over in this city the Oriental quarter listened to greet them, showering them with fruit, cigars, and presents of all varieties, holding a levee during the entire time of the train's stay in Fresno. No local Chinese were among those deported.

COUNTERFEITING CASE

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The government closed its case today at the trial of "Doctor" Ernest A. Muret for counterfeiting. Muret is the friend of Hans Schmidt, murderer of Anna Ammiller, and it is charged that they worked their counterfeiting plant together.

LOW PRICES FAIL TO BRING TRADE TO OUTSIDERS

Eastern Reports Indicate That Trade Generally Is Buying Freely

Chaddock Lyman, Guggenheim and Fowler Fruit Co. Cannot Get Raisins

Although the packers on the outside have been fighting the Associated Raisin company by quoting low prices in Eastern markets, trade reports indicate that there is a general buying for raisins and further indicate that the Associated has all the control of the situation that it has claimed. From all that can be learned here, it is only a few large dealers in New York and Chicago who are not buying raisins from the Associated, and they are unable to get raisins from the outside firms because the outside firms have none for sale.

The following trade report was received from New York yesterday, indicating how little the strength of the outside packers, particularly J. K. Armsby Company and Guggenheim, really is:

Outside interests are still underselling the Associated on both fancy and choice seeded, half a cent, but do not seem to be getting any business to speak of. As an indication that it is only a few large dealers who are holding back, while the trade generally is buying, the following from the New York Journal of Commerce is of interest: "While distributors in New York city and vicinity are putting up little business to the coast on the basis of current quotations, upstate and New England buyers, it is reported, have so far taken as much as their normal fall and early requirements call for and, accordingly, some reports have up to the present time bought at least 100 cars. Other sections of the country outside of the two big markets, New York and Chicago, have bought as much as usual for October shipment from the coast at the prices quoted by the Associated Company and those outside."

WITHDRAW QUOTATIONS

Whether outside packers have attempted to sell raisins under the Associated prices, representatives of the Associated have made efforts to buy, and in several instances have been successful, although the Armsby company, by skillful wording of its selling contract, claims to be able to prevent the Associated from getting its goods. The following from New York tells of the way the outside packers and their quotations were received there: "One day, however, they have up to the present time bought at least 100 cars. Other sections of the country outside of the two big markets, New York and Chicago, have bought as much as usual for October shipment from the coast at the prices quoted by the Associated Company and those outside."

STOCKS ARE LOW

All advices received here from the East are that the Associated stocks there are very low, but the Associated official do not expect the trade to anticipate its future demands in buying. They expect it to purchase as the goods are needed and this is now being done. James Madison has already announced that the Associated will be in business the year around and that it is making no effort to force the trade to anticipate what it may want for twelve months. Practically the only firm that is still endeavoring to make trouble for the Associated is the Armsby company. The Frank Lyman company has advised the East that he is unable to fill orders because he is unable to get the raisins. The Chaddock plant at Fowler is running at about one-third capacity because this company cannot secure raisins. The Fowler Fruit company is unable to get raisins because none are to be had, and the Guggenheim plant in Fresno is practically shut down for lack of raisins. All the raisins the Armsby company has sold have been secured from the Associated, although buyers for this company scoured the country for outside goods.

GRANT REHEARING IN FIREBAUGH CASE

Attorney G. W. Jones received word yesterday that the Supreme Court has granted a rehearing on banc of the case in which a court department ruled to hold that Firebaugh school district is not a part of the Los Palos joint union high school district contention. The case will be resubmitted on the briefs filed in the department case. According to the court ruling, Firebaugh school district is no man's land as regards any high school district organization. The case arises under a claim of Tax Collector Preciado of the Firebaugh school district. But why should Firebaugh worry over the controversy when, according to a recent statistical statement of Superintendent Lindsay, the district has never in its history graduated a pupil from the eighth grade.
